Today in the Quad-Cities Madison industry proposed

A new industry may locate in the Stephen Maeras Industrial Park in Madison if the Bi-State Laundry and Dry Cleaning Company of East St. Louis can get state approval to sell revenue bonds and then find buyers for the bonds.

In action taken by the Madison City Council at its Tuesday evening meeting local approval was given to the company to make application to the state.

According to M. Mike Petrosian, president and chairman of the board, $1,600,000 is needed for the operation and Richard E. Hoffman will handle the sale of bonds.

No problems in the bond sale are anticipated by Petrosian. Petrosian said in a letter to the council, "We will have job openings for approximately 120 people. The residents of the City of Madison will be given priority for these positions over and above anyone or any other city."

"With the new equipment and building, this will be one of the finest and up-to-date efficient institutional laundries in the United States."

The laundry services hospitals, hotels, motels and industries. According to Petrosian, the bonds should be sold within the next few weeks and construction on the new building could begin in about 45 days, with occupancy in five to six months, if there is state authorization.

Rehire honorably dismissed teachers

Nineteen of the 20 first-year teachers who were dismissed by the Granite City Board of Education in March due to doubt over how many teachers would be required for the new school year have been rehired. The Granite City Board of Education received this summary after rehiring two more Tuesday night.

Only one of those who was honorably dismissed declined a re-employment offer. The board also re-hired for another year three teachers who were employed under one-year-only contracts during the last school year.

The action brings to five the number of one-year-only teachers rehired. Twenty teachers were under one-year-only contracts last year.

The Board of Education also hired seven new teachers for the upcoming school year on one-year-only contracts, accepted the resignations of three teachers and granted a leave of absence.

Mary A. Davis, instrumental music teacher at Prather Junior High School, was granted the leave of absence for the upcoming school year.

Those who were honorably dismissed effective June 6 and rehired for one year effective this Aug. 25 were Janice Carmody, 20134 Delmar Ave., to be assigned to the upper intermediate level at Wilson School, and Lillian Phillips, 1233 Edwardsville Road, for the middle intermediate level at Marshall School.

What recession? — plant expands

By WALTER F. STRANGE

A major expansion program at the American Steel Foundries plant, 1700 Walnut St., is designed to increase the plant's production in all departments by 25 per cent over existing maximum production.

M. B. Milonski, works manager, said today the multi-million-dollar project is scheduled to be fully operational by Jan. 1, 1976, and may phases will be in operation before that time.

The plant produces heavy parts used in making railroad freight cars.

"The trick is to get everything going without halting production, but we are doing it," Milonski commented.

The parent American Steel Foundries is a division of Amsted Industries in Chicago. "Several new methods of production will be put to use when the equipment is installed. For example, we are installing new sodium silicate coremaking equipment which will eliminate oven drying," it was related.

"We are also spending over a half-million dollars on four new dust collectors as part of our environmental protection program."

Three of the collectors are replacements for existing dust-

Seniors help 'people who need people'

"People who need people are the luckiest people in the world."

The song — popularized by Barbra Streisand in the "Funny Girl" musical — "ain't necessarily so," some authorities say.

But people who help people in need often consider themselves lucky — in that they derive much satisfaction from "giving rather than receiving."

And that has been the experience of local senior citizens during the still new Retired

Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) in the Quad-Cities, several participants told the Press-Record yesterday.

RSVP gives persons over 60 years old an opportunity to volunteer their time to work at certain community service agencies, and "it gives me the feeling I'm not being pushed back on the shelf," Mrs. Thelma Prewett, 2727 Buxton Ave., has concluded.

The program is sponsored by Belleville Area College in cooperation with the Tri-City Area YMCA.

Mrs. Norma Mendoza, 2852 Kilarney Drive (not a senior citizen), directs the program from the YMCA, which has donated office space to the organization. She is assisted by Jim Fensterman, 1800 Spruce St. (also a non-senior).

Volunteers work several hours each week in area schools and nursing homes, the Granite City Township Senior Citizens Center and the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission in Collinsville, among other places.

Bicycle getaway by bandit

A robber wearing sunglasses and a wig entered the Farn Fresh Dairy Store, 3715 Namecki Road, just as the store was about to close at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday and stole an undetermined amount of cash from both cash registers.

The manager said the young man, about 25 years of age, required only about 30 seconds to complete the robbery and leave.

He entered rapidly, pointed a copper-colored pistol at the manager, demanded money and ordered him to lie on the floor.

The bandit then yelled to a teenage employee at the back of the store, "You better get up here if you don't want anything to happen to your buddy," and had him lie on the floor.

He told both to keep their mouths shut.

The robber used obscenities as he ordered the employees to give him money and to "hurry up."

He took the money from the cash registers and also had some $1 food stamps before telling the employees on the floor to start counting. They complied, and he walked out.

Witnesses said they saw a young man leave the vicinity of the store on a 10-speed bicycle.

The robber was described as about 5 feet, 7 inches tall, weighing about 175 pounds, wearing a "salt and pepper" wig over curly light reddish-brown hair, and attired in a light-colored shirt and trousers.

Miss GC ready for pageant

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

It's a hectic week at 2117 Grand Ave.

Clothes are being meticulously inspected and packed into suitcases with extra care.

Meanwhile, friends drop in at unexpected times to offer last-minute good wishes and advice. And there still are classes to attend at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, plus informal practice sessions listed on a busy itinerary.

Perhaps the least concerned person amid all the preparations is Melanie Rose Asadorian — the 1975 Miss Granite City — who is getting ready to depart Monday for Aurora and the Miss Illinois pageant.

The vivacious brunette is both friendly and gracious, managing to maintain a casual outward appearance by suppressing her normally "baby" personality.

United commercial division chairmen

Robert L. Jackson and Donald Van Horn have been named chairmen of the two Commercial Divisions of the October 1975 United Way campaign.

The announcement was made by David Fox, general campaign chairman of the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

Van Horn, who was president of the Bank of Cahokia before assuming the position of executive vice-president of the American National Bank of Granite City in mid-1974, will head Commercial Division II of the fund drive for the United Way agencies.

He said he plans an aggressive campaign and has much confidence in the group leaders of his division, which includes part of the retailers and all beauty salons, taverns, homes, restaurants, funeral homes, radio-television sales outlets.

Currently on the boards of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and the Associated Retailers and Civic Association, Van Horn is also on the budget committee of the United Way executive board.

He is a member of the Granite City Rotary Club.

Van Horn, his wife, June, and their two daughters are in the process of relocating from Belleville to Granite City.

Schools—Share facilities or else (pay to duplicate them)

A policy clarifying the Granite City Board of Education's position on both its high schools sharing one gymnasium and one varsity playing field was approved by the board at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

"In the interest of economy and efficient use of school facilities, it shall be the policy of Granite City Community School District Number 9 to designate the existing Memorial Gymnasium and football stadium—currently located on the Granite City High School South campus—for use by both Granite City High School North and Granite City High School South for their varsity home games in basketball, football and other sports as needs arise and schedules permit," the policy specifies.

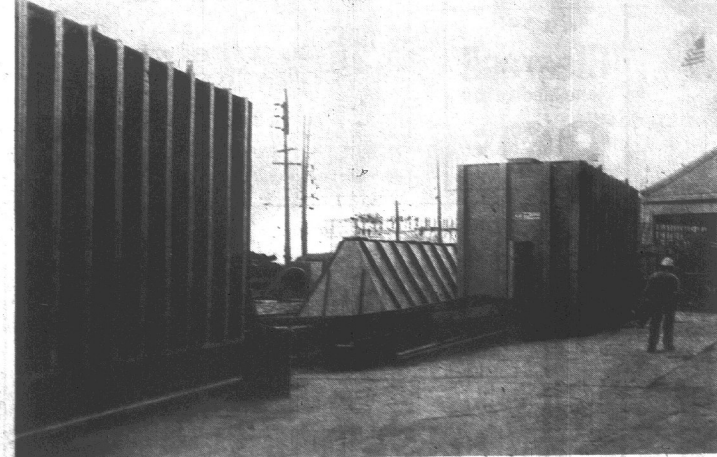

When GCHS North was constructed, the board said it lacked funds to provide sufficient seating in the gymnasium and athletic fields to host varsity events. At that time, the gymnasium and football stadium at the original GCHS (later named GCHS South) were designated to serve both schools for varsity home games.

Because the facilities are on the South campus and formerly were a part of the original high school, some North students and parents have told school board members that they are

EXCESSIVE RIVALRY? Fierce competition between South and North High Schools concerns some Granite Cityans, who note that each school has certain advantages and disadvantages: air-conditioned North offers newer classrooms, while South is larger, with more comprehensive and convenient facilities. Some quarters must be shared due to the high cost of duplicating them, and both North and South signs are being installed this week on the Memorial Gymnasium, situated on the GCHS South campus. The scene of publicly-attended indoor athletic events is proclaimed by the signs as Home of the South Warriors and also Home of the North Steelers. The Steeler sign drew surprised looks from these South students. (Press-Record Photo)

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENTS are being made in multi-million-dollar expansion work being done at American Steel Foundries here. Four new dust collectors, two of which are pictured above, are being installed. The photo was taken this week. The new collectors will replace three older ones and add a fourth collector to help take care of the expanded plant facilities. The environmental phase of the improvement is being done at a cost in excess of one-half million dollars. (Press-Record Photo)

Madison Lions host youths from Japan

Five students from Japan are visiting Madison and other cities in Illinois during July as part of the Lions International summer youth exchange program.

During the summer of 1976, several young people from Illinois will visit Japan and stay with members of Japanese Lions club members.

The Lions clubs of Japan, out of 6,000 applicants, sent 120 to various sections of Illinois. Mayor and Mrs. Mike Sasyk and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller are hosting Miss Rieko Ogawa, a college student whose hobbies are skiing, sports and skating. She is of the Nippon Shindo religion and lives in Sapporo, Japan.

Other parts of the state the students will be living include Palmyra, Edwardsville, Carlinville and Hettick.

Dave Clark is coordinating the students' visits in this area and said anyone in the Quad-City area who would like to meet with the students or invite them out may call him at 452-3377.

The students, who arrived here on Sunday, will be leaving Madison on Sunday, July 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Rash, Yasuaki Takeda, a commercial science student whose hobbies are soccer and reading Japanese literature, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ross.

3 vehicles on block damaged

Granite City police received three reports between 11:30 a.m. and noon Tuesday of vehicles damaged in unsuccessful theft attempts in the 2500 block of Revere's Route.

Susan Johnson, 2544 Revere's Route, said someone entered her station wagon and cut the wires to her stereo tape player. The player was not taken.

Harry Jones, 2549 Revere's Route, reported the ignition wires of his pickup truck were cut in an apparent attempt to start and steal the vehicle. He heard dogs barking outside at 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, and they may have frightened the criminals away.

Ray Robins, 2557 Revere's Route, said ignition wires of his auto in the driveway were cut, but the car was not started. A pair of sunglasses was found on the ground near the auto, believed dropped during the theft attempt.

11 GUNS ARE STOLEN
Eleven guns and a quantity of ammunition, all worth a total of about $1,688, were stolen from the home of Donald Bridges, Box 505, Layton Road, in the Bend area, it was reported at 12:15 a.m. Tuesday. The first door was forced open to gain entry.

Debate champion Nancy Weil recorded nationally

Eight local high school students participated in a summer communications workshop held on the campus of SIU at Carbondale. Seven of the eight participated in the debate division of the workshop.

Pat House, Brian Kozmen and Nancy Weil, all Granite South students, participated in the semifinals rounds of varsity debate, with Nancy Weil and her partner of Wheaton North, advancing to debate and win the final round of varsity debate held on the last day of the workshop.

Mike Taylor, a Granite City North student, and his partner, a Carbondale debater, placed first in the novice division of debate.

During the final week of the workshop, Marvin Kleinau, SIUC debate coach, selected four debaters to debate two rounds. These rounds were taped at the campus studio. Later they will be distributed as outstanding debate examples to various colleges and workshops.

At the end of the school year, they will be sold to high schools across the nation. In making his selection, Kleinau took into account the ability to debate and speak with clarity. Two Chicago debaters, one Peoria debater and Nancy Weil of Granite South were chosen for the national tapes. Other students participating in the debate division were: varsity, Larry Wyatt of South; and novice, John Kastelle and Curt McCann of North.

Dawn Larsen of North participated in the theater division. She portrayed Teddy in the play "Sybil."

BICENTENNIAL CIRCULATING COINS. Special quarter, half-dollar and dollar coins have been announced by the U. S. Treasury Department as part of the observance of the nation's 200th birthday during the year concluding July 4, 1976. Kennedy-Independence Hall half-dollars have been received for local distribution.

U. S. coins herald nation's 200 years

The hand flips a coin. Heads I win. Tails you win. The eyes light on the head of a colonial drummer. Did you win or lose the toss? You won! That head is really a tail.

You can take the word of Mary Brooks, director of the U.S. Mint. She's our nation's coinmaker and says the colonial drummer was chosen in a national design competition to appear on the back of the new Bicentennial quarter.

George Washington, she insists, still heads the coin over a new date—1776-1976—and it was all done to celebrate our country's 200th birthday.

"I know big decisions, like whether or not to walk the dog in the rain, rest on the flip of a coin," Mrs. Brooks says, "and I want to warn the nation's big decision makers about the big change in their small change."

In all, the Mint is changing the designs on the backs of three coins in honor of the Bicentennial. Along with Washington on the quarter, the faces of Kennedy and Eisenhower, with the new twin date, still head the half dollar and dollar.

Again, it's the backs that carry the new Bicentennial designs. Independence Hall won its place on the back of the half dollar. And the moon and Liberty Bell design was chosen for the dollar reverse.

Banks here have received the first of the circulating Bicentennial coins to be released—the Kennedy-Independence Hall half dollar.

Before the end of the year, the Federal Reserve System will have had time to supply the nation's commercial banks with the newly redesigned quarter and dollar.

"To me, these coins—like all our coins—are symbols of our nation's 200 years of freedom," Mrs. Brooks says. "They are small links with our historical and cultural heritage that will touch the hands of every man, woman and child in America."

Bicentennial—the way it was

July 17—In Dublin, Ireland, the Guild of Merchants voted thanks to Lord Effingham, who refused to fight against the Americans in their struggle.

July 18—In Philadelphia, the Continental Congress recommended the colonies form all able-bodied men between 16 and 50 into militia companies.

July 19—Congress authorized Gen. Washington to fill key vacancies in the Army and to send him more men, clothing, arms, gunpowder and medical supplies.

July 20—At Annapolis, Maryland, "a number of people" boarded the merchant ship Totness from London with a cargo of salt and burned the vessel.

Steelers and Davis gain shutout victory

The Glen Carbon Post 435 Steelers blanked the Highland American Legion 5-0 last night in a baseball contest at GCIS North.

Post 435 collected eight hits and Davis went the distance on the mound for the win. Highland had five hits.

Richard Schmidt started the scoring with a triple in the second inning and crossed the plate on a wild pitch. The Steelers added a run in the fourth on consecutive hits by Ed Schmidt, Dave Harrison and Jeff Reiter.

Glen Carbon put the game away in the sixth when Harvey Breckner singled, Richard Schmidt walked, Ed Schmidt singled in a runner, Harrison walked and Dickerson hit a long single to drive in two runs.

Champion pitches shutout for Legion

Pitcher Kirk Champion has a 5-1 record on the mound after he hurled a two-hitter last night at Wilson Park for Tri-City Post 113, blanking Fairview Heights 5-0 in a District 22 American Legion Baseball League contest.

The victory marked Champion's third shutout of the season.

He fanned nine and walked six opposing batters. Tri-City had eight hits and fielded flawlessly.

The host squad got a run in the second inning. Paul Evans singled, Keith Champion walked and Dave Dombek hit a sacrifice fly.

In the third, John Pritchard, who totaled three hits, singled and Tom Henrich reached base on an error. Paul Muthill got a hit, bringing in a run, and Henrich dashed home on a double play.

Post 113 added a run in the fifth as Evans reached base on an error and Jeff Scarborough tripled.

Tri-City put its final run on the scoreboard in the sixth when Dombek got a hit and advanced on a fielder's choice and a sacrifice fly, and Pritchard doubled.

E. St. Louis Legion wins at Lee Park

East St. Louis Legionnaires defeated Venice-Madison Post 307 last night, 13-3, at Lee Park. The visitors collected nine hits, scoring four runs in the first inning, six in the second, two in the fifth and one run in the sixth.

Post 307, with Kevin Werner taking the pitching loss, garnered a lone run in the opening inning as Cedric Wilson tripled and scampered home on Mike Vrabec's sacrifice fly. Wilson started Post 307's two-run fourth inning with a double. He advanced on a hit by Dave Hylla and stole home. Hylla scored on a passed ball.

Doubleheaders in Inter-City baseball loop

Three doubleheaders are on tap this Sunday in Illinois Inter-City Baseball League competition — Mercer's at Troy, Fairfax at Highland-Pierron and Panama at East Alt Vans — all starting at 1 p.m.

With eight regular season playing dates remaining on the schedule, players representing five of the participating teams clashed last night with league leader Highland-Pierron in the league's annual all-star game at Pierron, the hosts winning 6-3. In the nine-inning classic contest, Highland-Pierron scored one run in the opening inning and two in the third, and rallied with three in the eighth for the win.

The All-Stars garnered a lone run in the first inning, two in the fifth and one run in each of the sixth and seventh innings.

Mark Steiner was the winning pitcher and Ron Middleton took the loss. The hosts had 11 hits, fielding while collecting 11 flies, and the All-Stars made two errors.

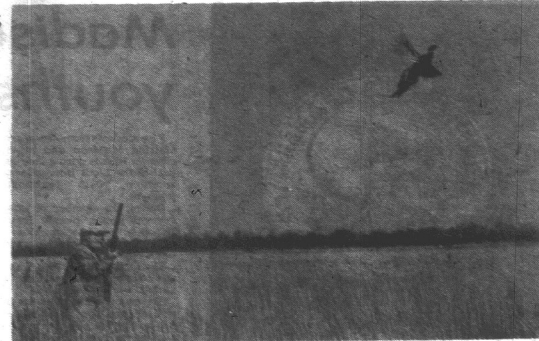

All-Star scoring was highlighted by a two-run homer by Troy's Gerald Schmitt in the fifth inning, a solo homer by Panama's Phil Hanks in the sixth, and a solo homer by Mercer's Jim Greenwald in the seventh.

Highland-Pierron got the tying and winning runs in the eighth when three batters singled, including Granite City Mike Martinez, and Steve Weiss doubled them home.

League standings going into Sunday's contests are: Troy 7-5, Highland-Pierron 9-7, Vans 7-6, Fairfax 8-7, Mercer 6-9 and Panama 5-8.

FAIR GAME. A pheasant bursts from the ideal natural cover before a hunter who seems a little less than ready for him, at the Des Plaines Conservation Area in Will County. The 4,000-plus acres of the site make it one of the largest—as well as one of the busiest and most varied—of the state Conservation Department's properties.

Motorcyclist McClure stops Kirkland's winning streak

Danny Kirkland, 18, of Millstadt, felt the agony of defeat at Tri-City Speedway Tuesday evening after having won every event he entered for the past three weeks, including three straight feature race wins, during American Motorcycle Association-sanctioned racing programs here.

The youthful rider started the evening with a loss to Texan

Guy McClure in the eighth heat race this week.

Both exchanged the lead several times before McClure passed him coming out of the fourth corner of the quarter-mile oval to win the event.

Kirkland still had hopes of keeping his feature race winning streak going after capturing the second semifinals event. McClure was victorious in the first semi.

Jimmie Lee, of Fort Worth, Tex., led the 12-lap feature race for the first two laps before Kirkland passed him to enjoy a short, one-lap lead in the event.

McClure powered his mount through the spring, summer and fall, and as a dog training center all through the year.

PLAINFIELD — Some place within its 4,333 acres (including 177 acres of water) the Des Plaines Conservation Area has something for just about anyone who enjoys being out-of-doors.

Fishermen can fish for a wide variety of fish, either from a boat on the Kankakee River during the summer, or through pond ice in winter. Or they may prefer seeking their finny targets in ponds, backwaters or creek waters. Boaters may enjoy just cruising along the river.

Hunters can try for pheasant, rabbit and deer, though deer hunting is limited to bow hunters only. Both shotguns, and bows and arrows, are permitted in rabbit and pheasant hunting seasons, and there is a permit pheasant hunting area as well.

Working dog enthusiasts will find the area a heavily used site for field trials during the spring, summer and fall, and as a dog training center all through the year.

Subsequent acquisitions brought the site to its present total. Located 14 miles south of Plainfield in Will County and 55 miles southwest of Chicago, the area is located on Interstate 55.

The south end of the conservation area is bounded by the Kankakee River, which provides 1.5 miles of shoreline. In addition, there are the 23-acre game farm lake, 65 acres of Kankakee backwaters, 75 acres of Grant Creek, four acres in pond 3 and 10 acres of the Frontage Road Pond.

Most of the area is made up of old farm fields and hedgerows, many of them planted in brown grass, clover or food patches to attract and support wildlife. More hedgerows are being planted to provide additional food and cover for a variety of wildlife including songbirds and non-game animals. Some acres are still under the plows of tenants, who use a system of strip farming in raising corn, oats and wheat. The state uses its share of the crop to feed pheasants and quail on the three game farms the department of conservation operates, and for winter food for area wildlife.

About 35 acres of the conservation area are in mature oak timber, attracting a variety of songbirds, while visual charm is added by the types of woodland wild flowers which flourish here.

The Des Plaines game farm is adjacent to the conservation area, with 60,000 pheasants raised on its 330 acres each year. They are the prime source of quarry in public hunting areas throughout the state, and are also released at field trials.

Fish available include largemouth and smallmouth bass, sunfish, crappie, channel catfish, bullhead, carp, northern pike, white and yellow bass, and sucker.

For bird watchers, a waterfowl observation blind has been built.

Hunters must report to the check station and secure and wear a back patch while hunting, and must check out, reporting the day's take. Rabbit and pheasant hunting on the area are permitted for the public after the permit pheasant hunting season has ended, while bow hunting for deer is allowed before and after the permit period for the season. All other species are protected in the area.

Specific hunting and other information can be obtained from the superintendent, care of the game farm Rural Route 1, Box 189, Wilmington, 60441.

Scirball is satisfactory

Dr. Alan Scirball of Granite City was in satisfactory condition today at St. Elizabeth Hospital after being admitted last week with an apparent heart attack.

Dr. Scirball, who has his office at 2044 Madison Ave., had just completed surgery at the local hospital when he began to experience the pain.

Believing them to be symptoms of a possible heart attack, he halted into the hospital's intensive care unit and asked to be admitted.

Oregon wrestlers show skills here

Roman wrestling.

Keith Whelan, in the 105 bracket, lost by default because of an injury. Woody Halbrook, 115, lost 3-0, teammate Glen Moore, 132, lost 1-4 and Ed Fetter, 142, was pinned.

Heavyweight Doug Hartman was pinned at 1-07 by Oregon's freestyle and Greco-Roman champion.

A national freestyle tourney will be next Friday and Saturday, July 25-26, at Iowa City, Ia., with Keith Whelan participating.

The Granite City meet was part of a summer cultural sports exchange among Illinois, Oregon, Oklahoma and New York schools.

Granite City area wrestlers lost a freestyle meet 7-2 Tuesday at the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium and a Greco-Roman meet 8-1 to an Oregon team boasting eight of its 13 members as Oregon weight-class champions.

Three individual wins by Granite City were scored by Keith Whelan, Steve Garland and Brian Wilson in the 105, 125 and 175 weight classes.

Whelan decided his opponent 105 in the freestyle wrestling. The Oregon challenger was second in that state's freestyle competition.

Wilson won his freestyle match by pinning his foe in 3:30. The Oregon wrestler was fourth in the Oregon high school tournament.

Both Garland and his opponent scored seven points in their Greco-Roman bout, and Garland won because of his greater number of moves. His challenger was the Oregon State freestyle champion and was second in the state's Greco-

Chouteau allocates tax checks to highway costs

The Chouteau Town Board of Auditors was told Monday night that partial taxes from both 1973 and 1974 tax year collections (1974 and 1975) have been received by the town clerk during the past two weeks.

The township received its final payments from the 1973 tax year from County Treasurer George Musso—$4,929 for road and bridge accounts and $2,323 for the town fund and general assistance.

In addition, the township received the first installment on the new 1974 tax collection from Township Collector Charles Lexow of $10,000. Of that amount, $6,000 is for the town fund and $4,000 is for general assistance.

It was noted that receiving two years' taxes at the same time dramatizes the speed of the town collector system over the amount of time required for distribution by the county.

Another $792 has been received by the township as interest on the earlier revenue sharing certificates of deposit. Also received was $80 from the county for race track permits.

Mrs. Polley reported that the taxes received from Musso were given to Township Highway Commissioner James Estes to pay bills and salaries, but the newer taxes had to be placed in a savings account to be reserved for paying off $40,000 in tax anticipation warrants.

The warrants must be paid from taxes before any of that year's tax money can be spent for other purposes.

The Town Board signed a contract with Madison County to participate in the Community Development grant program. The contract details requirements of the grant. Money from the first year of the program is expected to be received before July 31.

The board discussed trucks causing dust on Chain of Rocks Road and attempts by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency to aid persons living in that area.

The residents prepared a petition with more than 100 signatures requesting aid in controlling such dust. An Illinois EPA official has agreed to work with some of the residents to try and find a solution, the board was told.

Several board members and the town clerk held a lengthy discussion on whether the township's existing liability coverage would protect the township if there was a suit caused by actions of employees.

under the Manpower program. Highway Commissioner James Estes agreed to meet with the insurance agent and attempt to resolve the question.

The board set its future meetings, all beginning at 7 p.m. at 625 Thorngate Drive, Mitchell.

The next meeting will be Monday, July 28. August meetings will be on Friday, Aug. 8, and Monday, Aug. 25. Other meetings scheduled, all on Mondays, will be Sept. 8, 15, 22, and Oct. 6 and 20.

Children, Family Service operating despite a fire

The Area Office of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services in East St. Louis is back in business, following a fire Monday which destroyed the office at 310 N. 10th St.

Anthony Jenkins, area administrator, said adoption services and licensing of child care facilities are being handled by staff occupying quarters at the department's field office at 210 N. 7th St.

Administrative and fiscal operations employees, as well as those involved in resource development, have moved to 1285 N. 89th St.

Telephone calls for all area office personnel are temporarily being taken at the field office, 875-3400.

Jenkins said all area office personnel are scheduled to move into the new state office building in East St. Louis when construction is completed in the fall.

MAN WOUNDED IN LEG

George Rambol, 21, Galveston, Tex., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 1:35 p.m. Monday after suffering an accidental gunshot wound to his left thigh in the Troy area. He was brought here by ambulance.

MICHAEL URBANIAK and Fusion will perform Saturday night at the Mississippi River Festival concert series along with The Crusaders. The program will be given in the tent-and-hillside amphitheater on the SIUE campus.

Festival site will rock with jazz on Saturday

Events at the Mississippi River Festival at SIUE this week include a special Beethoven chamber music program at 8:30 tonight in the geodesic dome room of the campus Riverside Center, and a concert at 8:30 p.m. Saturday by The Crusaders with Michael Urbaniak's Fusion.

The group's new album, "Chain Reaction," reflects growth over the years from straight jazz performance to the current mix of music that blends a jazz style with various forms of today's popular sound.

Urbaniak, together with wife

Wilton Felder, Joe Sample, Stu Hooper and Wayne Henderson were joined five years ago by a "new" member, guitarist Larry Carlson.

They have been providing jazz interpretations of their own, as well as studio work for other artists, for nearly a quarter century.

The group's new album, "Chain Reaction," reflects growth over the years from straight jazz performance to the current mix of music that blends a jazz style with various forms of today's popular sound.

Urbaniak, together with wife

Ursula Dudziak on vocals, was voted jazz man of the year in Europe in 1973.

The couple has moved to the United States and has become one of the top jazz draws in the country.

Fusion, with Urbaniak at the helm, brings together jazz, rock, classical and folk music into a complete whole.

"Ursula Dudziak's voice, which becomes another instrument meshing with the music of the rest of the group, adds a distinctly individual contour to the group's performance, critics say."

Speedy tax collection in Nameoki Township

The advantage of using a township tax collector rather than the Madison County treasurer's office to collect taxes is how rapidly taxes are received from the town collector, Louis Whittell, Nameoki Township supervisor, told the Town Board of Auditors during its regular meeting Monday night.

Whittell told the auditors that he already has received the first installment of taxes collected from Town Collector Richard Peck on the 1974 tax year (1974 assessment and 1975 collection).

He said $20,000 has been received for the road and bridge fund and another $20,000 for the town fund and general assistance.

He noted that the check for the last of the taxes received for the 1973 tax year arrived from Treasurer George Musso just two weeks earlier.

Whittell reported that $36,174 from the Community Development grant program should be received by the township by July 31.

The board has signed an agreement specifying the terms which the township must follow in spending the money.

When the money is received, the township is to grant $20,967 to the Long Lake Fire Protection District for a new emergency truck.

The remaining $15,207 has been earmarked for engineering and planning services in preparation for installing a water line to the Arlington Heights subdivision.

A check for $12,817 in federal revenue sharing funds has been received to cover the final quarter of the fifth entitlement period, Whittell reported.

He also said a $2,650 check has been received from the state to cover expenditures from the general assistance fund which exceeded the amount of money raised by last year's tax collection.

The board discussed an inoperable fire hydrant at Harrison Street and Benning Avenue, damaged for more than a year.

It was reported the Mitchell Public Water District says the Long Lake Fire Department damaged the hydrant while testing it and the water company declines to repair it until the fire department pays for the damage. A bill for the damage has been sent.

Auditor Lee Adams said the issue has been stalemated for too long and he agreed to discuss the bill with the fire department and find out if that department is responsible for paying it.

A letter from Madison County Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City was read in which Hagnauer requested the township's permission to erect new street name signs at designated intersections in the township.

Highway Commissioner Albert Bell was requested to contact Hagnauer and grant permission.

The county is erecting the street name signs as part of its Community Development program to aid sheriff's deputies and emergency vehicles in locating specific addresses.

The board agreed to advertise for bids to purchase chemicals for the mosquito abatement program and for bids to sell a wrecked 1961 Chevrolet truck the township owns.

Funds were provided for the expenses of Rabies Control Officer Fred Kuehler to attend schooling for animal control officers Sept. 18 and 19 in Urbana.

Whittell responded to requests from residents of Gary Avenue for assistance in having an unsightly fence removed.

The supervisor said the fence does not violate county regulations, but added that he would request an opinion from the township's attorney whether the fence violates the subdivision regulations.

The board's next meeting will be preceded by a public hearing at 7 p.m. Monday, July 28, during which the township-electors will be requested to approve amending the federal revenue sharing budget.

The auditors are proposing to eliminate a $10,000 appropriation for parks and to transfer the money to a fund, which would help State Park, special police unit 58A purchase a squad car so the department can resume operations.

A regular town board meeting will follow the public hearing.

Mrs. Ruth Huxel succumbs

Mrs. Ruth (Reuss) Huxel, 57, of Terre Haute, Ind., a former resident and a daughter of late Dr. H. P. Reuss of Granite City, died Tuesday at a Terre Haute Hospital.

She was born in Granite City and had also resided in Belleville prior to moving to Indiana.

Mrs. Huxel was a member of the Central Presbyterian Church in Terre Haute. Survivors include her husband, William Huxel; one son, Gary Huxel of Terre Haute; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Morris of Sterling City, Mo.; and her step-mother, Mrs. Kathryn Reuss of Granite City. Arrangements are being conducted at a Belleville funeral home for private services at 1:30 p.m. Friday at Sunset Hill Mausoleum, Edwardsville Township. There will be no visitation.

The family is requesting memorial contributions to the American Cancer Society or the First Presbyterian Church of East St. Louis.

of tasks, including clerical work, typing, keeping medical records, teaching a craft or skill, or serving as a hostess.

Friday, RSVP will have 25 of its 35 to 40 volunteers for three months' service in the program.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler will speak to the group, and Harold Rudolph, YMCA executive director, will present recognition plans.

The RSVP orchestra from Belleville will provide entertainment.

The program here is an outgrowth of one started at Belleville Area College in the Belleville area.

In February, Mrs. Mendoza began speaking to senior citizens groups and church organizations to get volunteers for the program.

She also contacted local schools, St. Elizabeth Hospital and service agencies to set which places could use volunteer help several hours each week.

So far, RSVP has 11 agencies, or "stations," which have agreed to place the volunteers.

Mrs. Mendoza is pleased with the reception the program has received because "it's good to have places where senior citizens can work and feel they are doing useful, valuable things."

Mrs. Precourt, a retired teacher, is still pursuing her profession within the program by teaching knitting and crocheting to women at Colonial Haven Nursing Home, 3800 Stearns Ave.

She also teaches the skills during the school year at St. Mary's School.

"I get a real lift from going to the nursing home, and I know the people there look forward to it. Practicing the skills is good therapy for them."

"Maybe it's egotistical, but everyone wants to feel important, and this program lets the volunteers feel that way," Mrs. Precourt adds.

Many persons who join in RSVP think they are "killing two birds with one stone" by working in the volunteer social service group, they relate.

"RSVP gets me out of the house, gives me someone to go and also lets me do something to help other people. It's really wonderful," Mrs. Phyllene Gruber, 184 Grand Ave., said. She works at the YMCA several hours each week.

Mrs. Mable Findley, 2141 Grand Ave., has worked one month at the information desk at St. Elizabeth Hospital, and likes the program because it gives her a chance to get out and to meet people.

PICKUP TRUCK FIRE

Long Lake firemen were called at 12:30 a.m. today to the home of Michael Goodman, 27 Victoria Drive, a Pontiac Beach policeman, to extinguish a fire that had an estimated $500 damage to Goodman's truck, parked in front of his home.

Firemen were at the scene 20 minutes. A fire department spokesman said the cause of the fire is unknown.

collectors and we are installing the fourth to handle the increased production."

"A new furnace we purchased from the Castings Division of General Steel Industries is being installed and with it we will have a new automated double furnace, increasing our heat treatment facilities by 25 per cent," Milnski noted.

"We have people working all the time on the expansion. A lot of the work now is getting everything ready to put most of the new equipment in place."

"Our plant will shut down for two weeks as we do every year, beginning Aug. 4. During this time, we will move the new equipment in to be in operation by the time we start back in production on Aug. 18," Milnski said.

Two new buildings are being erected, and numerous in-plant modifications include two lean-to additions and an extensive alteration of an existing building to install heat treating facilities.

Foundations have just been poured and steel is being installed today for a 30,000-square-foot structure which will house processing of truck bolsters for railroad freight cars. The work to be performed on this building will include machining, welding and cleaning.

A new 10,000-square-foot building will house rod and chill reclamation.

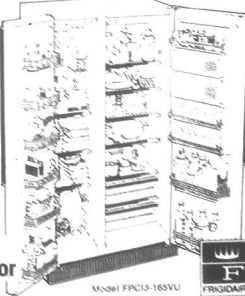

"We are upgrading all our existing processes, including core, molding and cleaning and finishing, in order to be able to produce 25 per cent more than in the past," Milnski summarized.

"And that means a lot," she stressed.

Mrs. Findley works in the RSVP program whenever she can, and at present is scheduled to work in the hospital seven hours every Wednesday.

Joshua Johnson named assistant state education superintendent

State Superintendent of Education Joseph Cronin yesterday named Joshua Johnson of Springfield as assistant superintendent for community services, effective in September 1975. He is a former Madison school official. Johnson currently directs community relations activities for the Illinois Office of Education. His new responsibilities will include coordination of publications and public information sections, as well.

Johnson's extensive service to education includes 14 years of teaching, coaching and administration in the Madison schools and administrative work as a supervisor, department director, and assistant superintendent with the Illinois Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction (the predecessor agency of the Illinois Office of Education). He also served as an assistant superintendent of the Cook County, Ill., public schools (1963-65) and was superintendent of the Division of Forestry Camps of the Illinois

Youth Commission (1965-68). He coordinated the offender employment program for the Illinois secretary of state in 1974. Johnson's career also has included four years of service in World War II (he is now a major, retired, U.S. Army Reserve) and a period as a professional baseball player—12 years in the old National and Negro American Leagues. He is a graduate of the public schools in Pittsburgh, Pa., and received his B.S. degree from Cheyney (Pa.) State College in 1940.

Johnson holds a master's degree in education from Pennsylvania State University, and has done further post-graduate study at the University of Illinois. A member of numerous educational and civic organizations, including the educational honorary society, Phi Delta Kappa, he has received many honors and awards for his service. Among them is a Presidential citation of October 1973 for "conspicuous service to public education and the profession of school administration."

Steal car, loot another

One car was stolen and another was looted after attempts to steal it were unsuccessful, both in the American Steel Foundries parking lot at Maple Street and Niedringhaus Avenues, authorities were told Wednesday afternoon.

Mark Edwards, 1731 Poplar St., reported at 3:15 p.m. Wednesday that his light yellow 1966 Chevrolet Malibu two-door convertible had been stolen from the lot. The car has a black top.

At 3:40 p.m. Wednesday, police were told the car of Will Streeter, East St. Louis, was broken into and the ignition had been pulled out in an apparently unsuccessful attempt to start the car.

Entry was believed gained using a coat hanger to unlock a door. Twenty tape recordings with a total value of $10 were removed from Streeter's car.

YOUTH IS BEATEN

Timothy Roberts, 16, of 2040 Skeen St., Madison, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 7:40 p.m. Monday after being beaten. He had pain in his head and jaw.

Special education programs explained

Programs and services available to Quad-City children were explained to the Madison Venice Rotary Club at its Wednesday noon meeting held in the Madison Recreation Center by Larry R. Dew, Special Education Region One director.

Dew explained that the three school districts, Granite City, Madison and Venice, combined to offer expanded special education services in 1968.

Superintendents and one member each from the three school board make up the regional board, and his staff works through the local school superintendents.

He said Illinois has been a leader in helping handicapped children and said that Granite City Rotarian George T. Wilkins Sr. when state superintendent of public instruction did much in the special education field to move the state ahead.

Dew emphasized that the main goals of the regional staff are to assist parents, teachers and principals in helping emotionally or physically handicapped children to adjust if at all possible in a regular classroom or special classes or special schools.

Dew pointed out that efforts are made to recognize learning problems early and to promote interagency cooperation.

Services are available to any child between the ages of three and 21 enrolled with local schools.

The club celebrated the birthday of the Rev. Mike Smith, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Madison. Rotarian Jerry Marvas was appointed public relations chairman for the club by Ray Edwards, president.

Members of the club are meeting at 6:15 p.m. Friday at the recreation center to go as a group to the Mount Nebo Baptist Church and pay respects to the late John Haynes, a former club member.

$184,130 Pontoon municipal budget

A $184,130 combined budget for general fund, sewer, road and bridge repair and federal revenue sharing expenses has been approved by the Pontoon Village Board for the 1975-76 fiscal year which began May 1.

The new budgets are $16,359 higher than last year's combined budgets, which totaled $167,771.

The new appropriations were approved without having been posted for public examination after Village Board President Floyd David Moss said he had received a revised opinion from Attorney Paul Guizarro saying the budgets did not have to be posted.

Moss did not attend the weekend meeting where the budget was approved.

The attorney had indicated at previous meeting that he felt the budget had to be posted publicly for 30 days prior to passage.

Included in the new budget are pay raises for the village's policeman. New weekly salaries, with previous salaries in parentheses, are: chief of police $250 ($234); sergeant $220 ($208); patrolman $200 ($190) and dispatchers $100 ($90).

The new budgets, by funds, with last year's appropriations in parentheses, are: general fund $141,170 ($121,886); sewer and bridge $7,000 ($9,500); and revenue sharing $26,960 ($25,800).

In other action, the board hired Richard G. McIntosh of Granite City, a former Madison County sheriff's deputy, as a replacement of J. D. Smith, who is being transferred to a state position.

Special use permits were granted to Dale Mosely to operate a produce stand at 4149 Pontoon Road, and to Herschel Singleton to place a mobile home at 1 Jones Park.

Ordinances were passed requiring a $25 annual business license for dentists and governing the sale and repair of heating and cooling equipment.

Baseball contests to include all-star game

Only five District 22 American Legion Baseball League contests remain in the regular season for this area's Legionnaires, all scheduled to be played this weekend, prior to Sunday's all-star game at Cahokia and league playoffs July 25-26 at Cahokia.

Glen Carbon Post 435 will host O'Fallon at six o'clock today at GCHS North, and Venice-Madison Post 307 plays host to Alton at today at Lee Park.

Three contests, two of the league games, are on tap tomorrow. East St. Louis meets Tri-City Post 113 at 6 p.m. at Wilson Park; the Granite City Braves play Post 307 at 6 p.m. at Lee Park in a non-league contest; and Post 435 travels to Cahokia for an 8 p.m. game.

The local Legion squads will end the regular 1975 season schedule on Saturday with New Baden playing Post 435 at 1 p.m. and GCHS North in a non-league contest, and Post 113 going to Highland for a 2 p.m. game.

With only the top four teams in league standings earning their way into next week's playoffs at Cahokia, this weekend's contests are important to the final season standings.

After last night's competition, the standings include: Belleville 15-5, East St. Louis 14-6, Cahokia 13-6, Tri-City and Alton tied with 12-8 records, Highland 11-8, Fairview Heights 10-9.

11-9, Glen Carbon 9-10, O'Fallon 7-12, Edwardsville 6-12, Collinsville 6-14 and Venice-Madison 1-20.

Slated to participate from this area in Sunday's 1 p.m. Legion all-star contest at Cahokia are: North team—Kirk Champion pitcher, Post 113, 5-1 record and 137 earned run average; Paul Evans, pitcher, Post 113, 3-1 record and 0.89 ERA; Bill Dickerson, pitcher, Post 435, 5-4 record.

The North team also are players from the Highland, Alton, and Edwardsville Legion squads.

The South squad is comprised of players from Cahokia, East St. Louis, Belleville, Collinsville, Fairview Heights and O'Fallon.

RADIO TAKEN FROM CAR A citizen band radio was taken from an auto parked in the St. Elizabeth Hospital parking lot and owned by Norma Kaleta, 3143 Rodgers Ave., during the weekend.

Thomas Parker found dead

Thomas E. Parker, 42, of 791 N. 60th St., East St. Louis, a Treasurer who had served as deliveryman for the Granite City Franklin Union furniture store about 11 years, was found dead in the garage of his home Monday, apparently the result of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Mr. Parker had not been seen since Thursday and had failed to report for work Friday. He was found by his wife, Mrs. Jerlean Parker.

An autopsy was conducted and an inquest is to be held in St. Clair County to establish the cause of death. Laboratory tests are being conducted to determine if a fatal level of carbon monoxide was in his body.

Mr. Parker was born in Louisiana, Miss., and served with the U.S. Army during the Korean war.

Survivors also include two children, Thomas Parker Jr. and Cindy Latrice Parker, both of East St. Louis.

Funeral services will be at 7 p.m. today at an East St. Louis funeral home, with the Rev. M. R. Lemons officiating. Burial will be at 11 a.m. Friday at National Cemetery, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Burglary at tavern

More than $205 was stolen during a burglary at Bob's Tavern, 215 and Adams streets, which was discovered at 4:50 a.m. Thursday.

Nails holding a man's washroom window closed were removed earlier in the evening to allow the window to be raised. The nails were not replaced and entry was believed gained by opening the window.

The pool table coin box had been pried open and a key was believed used to open the cigarette machine.

Stolen were $181 worth of Illinois state lottery tickets, $90 from the cash register, $4 from the change and the change from the pool table and cigarette machine.

munity's representative at the 1975 Miss Illinois pageant, scheduled to start with orientation Monday, rehearsals Tuesday and public performances Wednesday through next Saturday evening at Aurora West High School Auditorium.

The daughter of Edward and Mary Asadorian, Miss Granite City is continuing her studies at SIUE "up to the last minute." She will begin her sophomore year in September at the local university, where she is majoring in both music education and vocal performance.

Since winning the Miss Granite City crown Nov. 29 in the auditorium of Granite City High School South, Miss Asadorian has taken part in many civic functions.

Her most recent appearance was in the Shriners' parade last week.

The November 1974 pageant, sponsored by the Granite City Jaycees, was the first held here since 1970. Eight young women competed in the local beauty-talent show.

At the state pageant, Miss Asadorian will be matched against some of the loveliest and most talented girls in Illinois.

Thirty-three candidates chosen at universities, in small town contests or large city pageants, all reflecting their community's confidence in its young womanhood, will walk on the stage in Aurora.

The local girl is a talented soprano, whose vibrant voice will be heard at the state contest singing a medley of songs from "West Side Story," including "I Feel Pretty" and "Tonight."

Her talent presentation has been changed somewhat since the local contest, she reports.

The state contestants will vie in preliminary competition next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, with one winner selected each evening from each segment of the contest. The nine finalists then will repeat all three segments of the pageant at the final show on Saturday night, July 26.

As a member of "Group C," Miss Asadorian has the following assigned order of competition: talent, Wednesday; evening gown, Thursday; and bathing suit, Friday. Although she doesn't wear or need makeup under normal circumstances, to help her look her best on stage at the state contest, cosmeticians from the Merle Norman Cosmetics Studio in Granite City are providing her with makeup lessons.

"I don't wear any makeup usually. But I have to when I'm on stage, if not I'll look like a ghost," she commented this week.

The Granite City contestant will be accompanied to Aurora by Mrs. Marlene Ross, the official chaperone provided by the Jaycees, and her manager, Owen Ross, Jaycee board chairman.

Rules and regulations at the state pageant are strict and the protocol for candidates is equally as rigid as at the Miss America pageant, staged each year in Atlantic City, N. J.

For example, all telephone calls received by a candidate are screened and a five-minute time limit is placed on each call. Proud parents who travel to Aurora to see their daughters in the contest are allowed to speak with them for only five minutes during the daytime hours, the local candidate said.

Miss Asadorian was the 1974 May Queen of Granite City High School South.

She won first place in voice in the Illinois High School music contest and had the lead role in "Carnegie" of Lady Guinevere and the starring role of Linda Kingsley in "Impossible Years."

She was active in the Madrigal Chorus at high school. Miss Granite City is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 120 pounds. Her measurements are 34-24-35. She has brown hair, dark brown eyes and an olive complexion.

She is sponsored in the contest by First Granite City Savings and Loan Association.

All the preparations—the rehearsal of one's own presentation, practicing the songs and career roles sung and the preparations by the candidates during the pageant, plus interviews with judges and numerous other events scheduled during next week's pre-pageant activities—build up to that moment when 33 young women walk onto the brightly-lit auditorium stage Wednesday night.

Assigned to evaluate the Miss Illinois contestants are official Miss America Pageant judges representing the states of Michigan, Louisiana, Montana, Iowa and Ohio.

ARREST TWO BOYS FOR ENTERING HOUSE

Two young boys were arrested near a vacant home at 4 Concord Court in the Lexington Subdivision at 5:40 p.m. Monday and admitted entering the house.

Due to vandalism at that address in the past, officers were unable to determine if the boys damaged anything. They were referred to city juvenile authorities. The house belongs to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

TRAGEDY ON MADISON AVENUE early this week. Severely wounded when placed on an ambulance stretcher, John L. Jennings, 21, of 2828 Grand Ave., died nine hours later at Firmin Desloge Hospital. He was removed from his auto in a traffic lane near the 27th Street intersection, having been wounded in the head by a handgun found on the car's floorboard.

Schools

displeased with having to use "South's gym" and the "South field" for varsity events.

The district's athletic director, Joseph Fedora, initially called the former South football arena "City Stadium," but the name failed to gain much public recognition.

The school district this week sought to display visually to the public that the Memorial Gymnasium belongs to all the varsity high school teams in the community unit system by placing two large signs on the front of the gymnasium, one reading "Home of the South Warriors" and the other reading "Home of the North Steelers."

The written policy passed by the board Tuesday night was drafted by its policy committee. It was recommended for adoption by the committee and by the student bodies of both high schools. Superintendent of Schools E. J. Davis told the board.

The policy also specifies that signs, paintings and other school identifications presently in the gymnasium may remain permanently.

Temporary identifications of either school will be permitted immediately prior to, during and until completion of the event being hosted, it adds.

A temporary identification must be designed to promote school spirit and loyalty, must be consistent with the rules of the Illinois High School Association and must not be designed to degrade the visiting school, according to the policy.

The policy vests in the superintendent the duties of preparing rules and regulations necessary to implement the policy, and the responsibility for providing necessary supervision to assure compliance with the intent of the policy.

Store is robbed

A young man displaying a blue steel pistol entered the Parkway Confectionery, 27th and Benton streets, and stole $134 in cash at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday.

An employee said that when she saw the gun she told him, "There's the money. Take it."

The robber told her to empty money from the register into a paper bag and she complied.

He then reached to the coin tray and emptied it into the bag, ordering her to lie on the floor. Before leaving, he pulled the telephone cord from the wall.

He was seen walking rapidly south in the alley between the 2600 blocks of Benton and Adams streets and then turning east into the yards of houses.

The clerk ran to a nearby residence and called police. The robber was in his mid-20s and about six feet tall, weighing 160 pounds and having medium length hair, a medium build, a small mustache and a mole on his left arm.

He wore a blue tee shirt with a front pocket and blue pants.

(Press-Record)
Washington Bureau)
President Ford's flexible new highway program—if Congress buys it—apparently would be tailored to some of Gov. Dan Walker's fiscal hopes for Illinois.

Ford has sent a message to Capitol Hill asking Congress to authorize distribution of one cent of the federal government's four-cent gasoline tax to any state increasing its own gasoline tax at least one cent on the gallon.

The President's plan to distribute one-fourth of the gasoline tax to states would yield them about $1 billion a year.

To give state and local communities more discretion in spending the new funds from federal aid for highways—now restricted to the Interstate system—Ford proposes to reduce the 20 or so categories of highway spending programs to only four.

These four general categories—if Congress gives its blessing, and this is uncertain now—are expected to funnel more highway and construction money directly to state treasuries.

Ford's flexible approach on sharing the gasoline tax with the states appears responsive to Walker's testimony before a Senate Committee at Washington in late June.

Walker urged funding for short-lead-time construction projects to boost employment and pump money into the private sector as a tonic to economic woes besetting the states.

"I want to stress that I am not here to suggest that the role of state and local governments is confined to standing in line waiting for federal handouts," the governor testified.

"I do believe that federal funds can appropriately be made available in the areas I have mentioned."

One that he had mentioned was highway construction and its dependence on the gasoline tax.

"One of the most useful things the federal government has done is the recently-passed legislation allowing the states to defer payment of matching funds for highway construction."

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD states to maintain major road construction programs in the face of stagnant and declining gasoline tax receipts.

Walker said there is a "desperate need for the federal government to provide money in the construction area" and he said the states particularly need the kind of help provided in the deferral of matching fund requirements.

He said that under deferral, "states were given flexibility to use the money for short-lead-time projects."

This appears to be precisely what Pres. Ford has in mind in his flexible new highway program and the allocation of one-quarter of the gasoline tax to the states.

Trailriders horse show July 26

The Trailriders Saddle Club of Granite City will sponsor its annual "Money Horse Show" at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, July 26, at the club arena on Chouteau Slough Road at Rock Road, near the Chain of Rocks Canal levee.

A total of $1,250 will be offered in prize money to competing riders.

Guaranteed purses of $85 are planned in each of 13 classifications, with the exception of the halter class, which offers $50.

Additionally, ribbons will be awarded to the first through fifth place finishers. An entry fee of $5 per class has been set.

The public is invited to view the show. Miss Giner Bowman, club secretary, said this week. An admission fee of $1 per person will be charged, with children 12 years and younger admitted free.

The "money" show is the only event of the season for which admission is charged, Miss Bowman explained.

In this week's point show at the local arena, Billy Leroy, riding Leo Four Step, was a triple event winner, capturing first place in the junior poles, junior barrels and plug race.

Boat race tickets are selling well

Tickets to the 13th annual Kiwanis regatta scheduled for 1 p.m. Sunday, July 27, at Horseshoe Lake are selling well.

Joseph Palovich and Darrell Lidy reported at the group's meeting Monday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

Members of the club are selling tickets for $1 per car.

The event is the Evening Kiwanis Club's major fund-raising project of the year, and all money earned is used by the club to support local charity projects.

Kiwanian Bill Seebold, a former boat racer and general chairman of the project, told the club that leading drivers from other parts of the country again have expressed interest in the local competition.

Hydroplanes, powered by alcohol and nitro fuels, will be racing at speeds in excess of 100 miles per hour on the lake.

Kiwanians Howard Elbertson and Walter Ryski are in charge of food and refreshments. They will be assisted by wives of the Kiwanians and will sell hot dogs, barbecued pork and beef, soda and beer.

Shoestring catches beat Legionnaires

Glen Carbon Post 435 lost a 5-3 District 22 American Legion Baseball League contest at Collinsville Tuesday. Satch Page, a Post 435 spokesman, attributed the result to "fantastic fielding by Collinsville."

"Collinsville's center and right fielders made four diving shoestring catches of line drives which would have been homers otherwise," said Page.

"Because of that, we stranded six runners in three straight innings."

Loosing hurler Bill Dickerson allowed nine hits in going the distance and had two of his line drives scooped off the ground.

Dave Stubble was the winning pitcher.

The Glen Carbon Stealers took a 2-1 lead at the end of the second inning when Richard Schmidt and Greg Terrell both walked, and Ed Schmick, Dave Harrison and Dickerson singled.

Collinsville garnered the tying and go-ahead runs in the third inning and commanded a 4-2 lead after four.

Glen Carbon made the score 4-3 in the fifth when Billy Carr walked, advanced on two groundouts and dashed home on a passed ball.

The host team added its final run in the sixth inning.

Darrel Page, who leads the Stealers in batting with a .315 average, has enrolled to begin this fall at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he will play baseball and basketball.

As a senior basketball player this past season at GCHS North, Page averaged 17 points per game against opponents.

Park lifesaving and swimming instruction

The Granite City Park District is accepting registration for its junior and senior lifesaving classes, which begin July 21, and for its girls' swimming lessons, which begin July 28. Both will conclude on Aug. 8.

Boys and girls wishing to enroll in lifesaving classes may do so from 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily at the Wilson Park swimming pool.

Girls wishing to enroll in swimming lessons may do so from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. daily at the pool.

Advanced beginners and intermediate swimming lessons will be conducted from 9 to 9:45 each morning, and beginner lessons will be held from 10:30 to 11:15 each morning.

There is no charge for enrolling in either course for park residents.

Mixed doubles tennis tourney this weekend

The Granite City Park District will host this weekend a mixed doubles tennis tournament at Wilson Park for adult (21 and over) park district residents.

The tourney will start at 5:30 p.m. Saturday with opening rounds, and end Sunday with semifinal and final action, beginning at 6 p.m.

The tournament, one of many being played nationwide for amateur competitors, allows winners to advance to regional competition later this month at Indianapolis.

Regional victors will earn an all-expense-paid trip to a World Team Tennis League meet.

Tournament Director Joe Papes relates, "We will balance the teams according to rules specially designed for mixed doubles competition, and pairing will be such that husbands and wives do not play on the same team."

Park residents wishing to compete must complete registration forms at the park office prior to 5 p.m. tomorrow. There is no fee for entrants.

STATEBOUND TOURNAMENT TITLISTS.
Petrillo Produce, a member of the Granite City Park District women's softball league, will travel to Duplo for a July 30-Aug. 4 defense of its Illinois state slow-pitch championship. Petrillo, victors in both the park district's annual Fourth of July tournament at Wilson Park and the Illinois Amateur Softball Association district meet, has taken top honors at state two years straight—1973 and 1974. Petrillo's Robin Hayden, at first base, grabs a throw to first to retire the side in the opening inning of the holiday championship contest July 9 at Wilson Park against the Caseyville Comanches. Winning pitcher Diane Daugherty is at far right. Petrillo won 6-4 in nine innings.

Does victory await Victory?

The Illinois Amateur Softball Association Men's Class AA District tournament at Worthen Park may or may not end today, according to Mike Jesse, Granite City Park District recreation director.

Victory Tavern, presently in fourth place in the park district's Men's AAAA League with a 2-4 record, is attempting a sweep to its second double-elimination tournament title in as many weeks, having captured the Fourth of July title. Victory will meet Sports Club, which is first in AAAA League standings at 8-1, at 8 p.m. today in a championship bracket semifinal game, with the winner meeting a representative from the losers' bracket in the championship game at 11 o'clock tonight.

But, according to Jesse, if the loser of tonight's championship contest is suffering its first loss in the tournament, either Victory Tavern or Sports Club, a new championship game will be played sometime this weekend, providing a second opportunity at victory in conformity with the double-elimination competition.

"This situation happened last year," recalls Jesse, "in our Class A district meet when Gangbusters had its first loss of the tournament, 6-1, to Hagop's Heroes in what was to have been the final game, forcing the contest to be replayed."

Although the championship contest is important, a icy battle for survival will take place at six o'clock today in losers' competition between Hagop's won the second title game 10-5.

In the championship bracket and now must work their way back into title contention with a three-game sweep in the losers' bracket.

With only five of the six participating teams earning the right to advance to a state Class AA tournament at Rock Island, July 24 to Aug. 3, the loser of the tournament, 6-1, to Hagop's Heroes not only will suffer a second defeat in the tournament, but also will lose the right to advance to the state meet.

Today's schedule includes: Post 307 vs. Millie and Mickey's at 6 p.m., My Old School vs. Croatian Home One at 7 p.m. and winners of these two contests meeting at 8 p.m.

Braves in 2nd place

The Granite City Braves baseball nine faces a four-game home stand this weekend starting with a 1 p.m. contest tomorrow at the GCHS North diamond against East St. Louis in a Central Illinois Traveling League contest.

The game with East St. Louis, which would have snatched a two-way tie for second place in league standings (both have 5-3 records), was postponed from a Tuesday game date when a scheduling conflict arose.

On Saturday at 2 p.m., the Braves will host Jacksonville at the GCHS South diamond. They then will host Highland Sunday in a league doubleheader at 2 p.m. at the GCHS North diamond.

Braves hurler Paul Evans with a 3-1 win-loss record, will start against East St. Louis. Rick Fancher, 1-2, will face Jacksonville and Mike Hankins, 3-0, will be on the mound in the first contest Sunday against Highland.

NUTRITION AND ATHLETES

The dominant problem today in sports nutrition is the misconception, held by far too many athletic coaches, that their athletes should limit the amount of water they drink during a game. The premise of these coaches is that athletes can become water-logged and perform poorly.

Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, restricting water in the athlete can result in injuries and even death.

IF THAT sounds wild, you are grossly uninformed regarding a serious problem now facing this nation's sporting community. When I headed up the U.S. Army Medical and Nutrition Research, we conducted exhaustive studies of soldier physical performance in temperate climate as well as the tropics and in arctic zones. One of the most informed men in this field is C. Frank Conzelmann, who is now Chief of the Biomechanics Division, Dept. of Nutrition at the Letterman Army Institute of Research, San Francisco.

RECENTLY Frank spoke at a food retailers' conference sponsored by the National Dairy Council, saying, "The dangerous practice of water discipline in athletes must be eliminated. Injuries and deaths due to dehydration and sub-

Men's baseball tournaments at Wilson Park this weekend

The Granite City Park District will host two men's divisional baseball tournaments at Wilson Park this weekend — a four-team Atom Division meet and a seven-team Juvenile Division tourney — both beginning Saturday and concluding on Sunday.

Atom competition will start on Diamond 3 at 3 p.m. Saturday between Commercial Office Products of Granite City and the Knights of Columbus of Cahokia.

A second contest on Diamond 4 will be played at 3 p.m. Saturday between the Cougars and Eagles, both of Granite City. Winners of the contests will meet in a championship game at 3 p.m. Sunday on Diamond 3. Losers of both Saturday contests will meet for consolation honors at 3 p.m. Sunday on Diamond 4.

Only two Granite City squads are in the Juvenile Division tournament — Kiwanis Club and Elks Club.

Kiwanis opens the tournament in a 10:30 a.m. contest Saturday with the Braves of Bridgeton, Mo., on Diamond 1; and the Elks play in a second contest at 1 p.m. with Family Inn of Highland on Diamond 1.

The Bridgeton Spartans and Maryland Heights, Mo., Cardinals will play each other at 10:30 a.m. Saturday on Diamond 2. The Manchester, Mo., Blue Jays have a first-round bye.

Losers of the Kiwanis-Braves and Family Inn-Elks contests will meet in a consolation bracket contest Saturday on Diamond 2; the loser of the Spartans-Cardinals contest draws a consolation bracket bye.

The team drawing the consolation bye will play the winner of Saturday's 3 p.m. consolation game for that bracket's honors in a 3 p.m. contest Sunday on Diamond 2.

Winner of Saturday's tournament opening games between Kiwanis-Braves and Family Inn-Elks will meet in a semifinal contest at 6 p.m. Saturday on Diamond 1.

The survivor of Saturday's Spartans-Cardinals contest will meet the Blue Jays in a second semifinal contest at 6 p.m. Saturday on Diamond 2.

The tournament championship title is set for 3 p.m. Sunday on Diamond 1 at Wilson Park.

Steelers edge past Tri-City team 2-1

Glen Carbon American Legion Post 435 capitalized on a seventh-inning error Monday at the GCHS North field to put the winning run across the plate for a 2-1 victory over Tri-City Post 113.

The score was deadlocked at 1-1 at the end of the first inning.

Glen Carbon scored when Darrell Page singled and advanced on a sacrifice fly, a wild pitch.

Tri-City tallied as Tom Heinrich singled, advanced on a sacrifice fly and scored on Paul Evans' double.

The game appeared destined to go extra innings until the Glen Carbon Steelers put the winning run across. Winning Pitcher Greg Terrell singled and went to second on Bill Dickerson's sacrifice bunt.

Ray Smith beat a throw on a bunt before Dave Harrison stepped to the plate, facing a two-out situation.

Harrison tapped a grounder and Terrell dashed home when the ball was bobbled by the infielder.

"We just couldn't get the runners in," recalls Tri-City's Conrad Champion.

"We had the bases loaded three innings in a row and couldn't score."

John Scott took the loss on the mound.

GRANITE CITY GOLFERS who participated in a benefit tournament sponsored by the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Foundation included Harold R. Fischer (left) and Chester L. Baker. Fischer is a former chairman of the SIUE Board of Trustees. The Foundation earned $15 from each $40 tourney entry fee, to be used for student awards and loans. Seventy-four men and women played in the tournament at Sunset Hills Country Club.

BLACK KNIGHTS Drum and Bugle Corps of Belleville was heralded by a colorful flag unit during the 1975 Shriners' parade here. The annual parade is a

MOUNTED UNITS from the Trailriders Saddle Club were among entries in the Shriners' circus parade

2 wounded by shotgun

Joseph Manning, 28, and Sidney Isom, 36, both of East St. Louis, were struck by shotgun pellets as they were putting fishing equipment into the trunk of their auto beside the railroad tracks near Bend Road and Route 203 Monday.

The men said they had been fishing and were putting their equipment away when two men in a white Chevrolet Vega with red and blue stripes on the car drove to within about 35 feet of their auto and stopped.

The two men in the Vega got out and opened the rear hatch, removing something wrapped in a white towel.

Manning and Isom said they thought the men were going fishing and ignored them. They then heard a loud noise and both felt pain.

A second gunshot blast followed and they were struck again, they said. The assailants then got back in the Vega and drove from the scene.

Isom said he obtained his pistol from his car's trunk and fired one shot at the auto, but did not think he struck it.

Manning and Isom were treated for surface wounds at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

The assailants were described as in their late 20s or early 30s, about six feet tall and both wearing red baseball caps.

The Sting

Caution and Common Sense Urged for Stinging-Allergic Persons

If you're stung by an insect while you walk in the woods or picnic this summer, chances are that the sting won't cause more than a brief, mildly painful disruption. But for a significant number of hypersensitive people, a sting from a wasp, yellow jacket, hornet, honeybee, or bumblebee can be more than annoying — if left untreated, it can be fatal.

These individuals suffer from "allergy-to-hymenoptera stings," an allergy that produces a reaction that kills more people annually than snake bites. But with the aid of hypodermic injections, and a little caution, the allergic reactions of these people can be far less severe, according to a twelve-year study conducted by Dr. Solomon E. Barr, an allergist and assistant clinical professor of medicine at The George Washington University in Washington, D.C.

From 1960 to 1972, Dr. Barr reviewed the records of 249 patients allergic to insect stings in his private practice. The patients were male and female, preteens through the elderly. After attempting to identify the offending insect, Dr. Barr gave each patient the first in a series of hypodermic injections. In most cases, the injection consisted of a mixture of diluted glycerin and the crushed bodies of the four most common stinging insects — the honeybee, wasp, hornet and yellow jacket. Most of the 249 patients in the study received injections on a regular basis. All but five reported distinctively less severe reactions when stung again, and in no case did any patient become worse.

Dr. Barr also gave the patients explicit instructions for prompt emergency treatment. "The insect should first be brushed off," he said, "and if the sting sac is left in the skin, it should be scooped out with a fingernail. Be careful not to squeeze the sac, for this could release more venom." Patients were also urged to carry emergency kits that contain preloaded syringes of epinephrine — an adrenaline derivative that if injected immediately will offset an allergic reaction.

If you experience what seems to be an allergic reaction to an insect sting (unusual itching, swelling, runny nose, or tightness in the chest), Dr. Barr recommends that you see a physician.

Finally, Dr. Barr advises that stinging-allergic individuals should take steps to prevent future stings. Insect nests around the house should be removed, carefully. He also recommends certain specific outdoor preventative measures.

"Allergic individuals should always wear shoes and socks outdoors," Dr. Barr notes. "Another rule is to avoid seeming like a flower to the insect. Avoid floral prints, bright colors, perfumes, or scented hair oils. Lighter colored clothing with a hard surface is less attractive to these insects. Insect repellents can be effective if all exposed areas of the body are covered. Finally, always practice the 'rattlesnake technique': never touch, sit, or step on anything without looking first."

John Schmacker, 73, dies

John "Sonny" Schmacker, 73, of 9 Farrington St., Collinsville, father of John "Jack" P. Schmacker of Granite City, died at 4:30 p.m. Monday at Belleville Memorial Hospital.

A lifelong resident of Collinsville, Mr. Schmacker had been employed by the City of Collinsville for 30 years, including 12 years as superintendent of streets, prior to retiring in 1960.

He was a member of St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church and Eagles Aerie 1051 of Collinsville.

Also surviving are his wife, Mrs. Rose (Gavin) Schmacker; one daughter, Mrs. William (Rosemary) Steek of Collinsville; two sisters, Mrs. Fred (Dorothy) Dunham of Hollywood, Fla., and Mrs. Harold (Lorraine) Froehlich of Hallandale, Fla.; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. today at St. Peter and Paul Church. Burial was in the church cemetery at Collinsville.

$1,500 loss in store burglary

The loss is being estimated at about $1,500 from a burglary at the Git & Go Market, 605 Chouteau Ave., Mitchell, discovered at 1:30 a.m. Tuesday.

A side window was broken to gain entry.

Taken were $268 cash from the register, 60 cartons of cigarettes, a television set, a camera, a projector, 30 tape recordings, two shotguns and a television.

Drivers hurt

The autos of Cathy Faulkner, 18, of 2147 Waterman Ave., and George Hadaller, 69, of 2508 Cleveland Blvd., collided at 27th Street and Delmar Avenue at 5:10 p.m. Tuesday, injuring both drivers.

Hadaller was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a hematoma to his left knee, abrasions to both legs and pain to his right hip.

Cathy Faulkner was treated for small cuts to her right arm and left cheek and was released.

Apartment looted and car is stolen

The apartment of Patricia Kraft at 2000 Grand Ave. was looted and her car was stolen while she was on vacation, the victim discovered upon returning at 10:40 p.m. Monday.

She had been gone from home for two weeks and returned to find her 1963 blue Chevrolet two-door automobile missing.

She also found her apartment door open and noticed the absence of a $50 television set and $210 brown fur coat with a gold collar. Entry to the apartment was gained by breaking a window in a side door and opening the door.

Big week at River Fest includes Judy Collins, Bob Hope

Three important films, some barbershop harmony and a night of laughter with Bob Hope highlight the fourth week of activities at the Mississippi River Festival on the campus at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville next week.

The film "Antonia: Portrait of the Woman," kicks off the week on Monday, July 21. It is the story of Antonia Brico, as a woman who is one of the foremost conductors of the world in a field dominated by men.

In a long career that reaches back to the 1930s, Miss Brico has been what critics called "a phenomenon in her mastery of the orchestra—a symbol because she illustrated the emancipation of woman from the man-imposed fetters of the ages."

Following the movie, Miss Brico herself will be in attendance for a lecture about her life and the film, providing an opportunity for the audience to see and talk with the subject of the film. Location will be the University Center.

The movie is the brainchild of Judy Collins, one-time piano student of Miss Brico.

Miss Collins appears at the Festival the next night, Tuesday, July 22.

Judy Collins, who first proposed and then co-directed the film, has been one of the world's premier folk-singers for years. A good portion of her success comes from her ability to see and talk with the subject of the film. Location will be the University Center.

Bob Hope, who first proposed and then co-directed the film, has been one of the world's premier folk-singers for years. A good portion of her success comes from her ability to see and talk with the subject of the film. Location will be the University Center.

Starting with his first appearance at The Palace in New York in the days of vaudeville, Hope has consistently maintained his position as the top comedian in the world. His stature is such that he appears worldwide before heads of state with surprising regularity, and he recently received his 26th honorary doctoral degree.

The final music event of the week is the Night of Barbershop Harmony, featuring the Chordbusters Chorus, the Dealer's Choice Quartet, the O. K. 4 Quartet and the Bron's Tunes Quartet.

This special night of harmony, Saturday, July 26, will be preceded by a day-long series of classes and workshops in Barbershop Harmony taught by various members of the SPEBSQSA (Society for the Preservation and Advancement of Barbershop Singing in America).

The weekend will end Sunday, July 27, with a special evening of World War I film classics, "All Quiet on the Western Front" and "Paths of Glory," which will delve into man and his inclinations to wage futile wars.

Tickets are available for any of the week's performances at the SUIE Box Office, by mail or by calling 692-2320, or at any of the Festival's area outlets.

Four generations of the Jackson family, all residents of Granite City, traveled to Lake Pomme de Terre, Mo., on a fishing trip.

One hour after the group arrived at the Hickory Grove Resort, Dwight Jackson, 24th Grand Ave., the great-grandfather, caught the first fish—a 7½-pound largemouth bass.

Jackson, 69, is retired superintendent of the Tri-City Grocery Co.'s warehouse.

Others making the trip with their families, included Dwight's wife, Helen; his son, Jerry Jackson, 47, who is employed in the BOF Division of Granite City Steel and lives on Grand Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lignoul Jr., 2448 Center St. and their 3-year-old son, Chad Lignoul.

Lignoul is employed at the GCS Blast Furnace Division.

Members of Precursor Beta Gamma of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority attended the Henry Mancini concert at the Mississippi River Festival on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

An unusual evening was planned for the festival patrons with a box lunch available and a display of fireworks following the performance.

Later, the group reconvened at a local restaurant. Those attending were Mrs. Evelyn Tolliver, Mrs. Lora Mae Lombardi, Mrs. Arlene Haldeman, Mrs. Norma Rains and Mrs. Delores Dorch.

SUIE to host legislators

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is sponsoring an appreciation night Friday, July 25, for area legislators for their help in securing Illinois and Missouri state grants for the Mississippi River Festival. About 250 persons have been invited.

The event will include a dinner at the Sunset Hills Country Club and entertainment at the River Festival's evening show starring Bob Hope.

Today's Health News

Published by the American Medical Association

Summer, to most of us, means days devoted to sun, riding the surf, or camping in the wilderness. However, to those with summer allergies, it means three months of watering eyes, dripping noses, and itching skin.

Although you can't cure allergies — the tendency for allergic response is inherited — there are guidelines that can help you control them throughout the pollen season.

*Wear glasses — regular or sunglasses, preferably large wrap-around or aviator styles when outdoors — they may help keep the pollen from blowing directly in your eyes.

*Keep doors and windows closed, especially on dry, windy days when pollen blows freely. If you must open a window, try not to sleep directly under it.

*Avoid garden work. It stirs up increased amounts of pollen and mold spores. Don't have cut flowers in your home.

*Synthetic carpets and blankets are recommended because they don't hold dust.

*Try to keep from getting overly fatigued.

*Refrain from smoking.

*Curb your intake of alcohol. These beverages tend to dilate the blood vessels — just as the histamine reaction, which causes your runny nose and watery eyes, does.

*Check the local pollen count before choosing a vacation spot. Don't swim in chlorinated water unless you wear nose clips.

County road signs to help emergency vehicles, others

Nelson Hagmuer, chairman of the Madison County Board, has announced that Madison County intends to apply part of the funds received under the Housing and Community Development Act to aid in the establishment of a road reference and sign identification system throughout unincorporated Madison County.

Purpose of the program, which the county proposes to undertake in cooperation with the Illinois Department of Transportation, Office of Transportation Safety, is to "sign" all county and township road intersections in order to reduce emergency vehicle response time, and to facilitate accident reporting and traffic movement.

Hagmuer pointed out that the lack of a coordinated road identification system in the past has made it difficult and sometimes impossible for emergency vehicles, including sheriff, ambulance and fire vehicles, to locate their calls.

Lester Miller, acting superintendent of highways for the county, indicates that the county will apply for additional funds from the state of Illinois and with its assistance will purchase and install all of the initial signs, as well as publicize the program and furnish reference maps to all emergency services, dispatchers and the interested public.

Miller said there are approximately 813 intersections in the county which will be signed.

The signs will be green and white reflectorized, and will contain information to identify the distance north or east of the southwest corner of the county.

Sheriff John Maestas points out that, if implemented, the program will provide "a tremendous opportunity to improve Madison County's emergency communication network, as well as improve overall traffic safety and movement."

Opens market

Pete Novacek, 4801 De'Lynn Drive, opened Novacek's Meat Market Tuesday at 8401 Collinsville Road, two blocks east of the Grandpa's Discount Store.

Novacek had managed a supermarket meat department for seven years. He said his new market features retail fresh-cut meat. He sells no pre-packaged meat.

Suit follows auto mishap

Donald Scharro Sr. has filed a four-count suit in Madison County Circuit Court, seeking $10,000 in each count for his minor daughter, Teresa, 1305 Robin St., Venice, against the City of Venice, Venice School District, Theresa Grimm and Stein Egg and Poultry Co. of St. Louis.

He alleges that on Feb. 26, 1972, while his daughter was using a school crossing near St. Mark's School, 609 Broadway, Venice, she was injured when struck by the Grimm auto.

It is alleged that a crossing guard signaled the vehicle to move into the crossing, which is maintained by the City of Venice, while the girl was in the crosswalk.

PARKED AUTO LOOTED
Items totaling $60 were removed from the auto of David Lewis, 341 Delta Ave., while it was parked at his home during the weekend. Missing are an FM converter and a speaker.

All of the equipment taken from the office was found under a truck 15 yards away from the office. Five extinguishers had been emptied throughout the trailer, damaging an adding machine and other equipment.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. today at a Calhoun Funeral home for Elder Eric Gough, 78, of 844 Midway Ave., Cahokia, father of Mrs. Joseph (Alice) Wondra of Granite City. He died Monday at Centerville Township Hospital. Mr. Gough was a retired employee of Union Electric Co.

Other survivors include his wife, Mrs. Corintha Bray Gough; another daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Hazel) Van Hooser; and a son, Vincent H. Gough, all of Cahokia.

Property acquisition by municipality in Madison

The Madison City Council at its Tuesday evening meeting approved entering into a contract with Madison County which will allow the city to receive $10,000 from HUD (the Department of Housing and Urban Development) to purchase within the next two weeks several pieces of property through a community development grant.

The total cost of the four properties being purchased is $15,000, with the city furnishing the other $5,000.

Three derelict buildings at 1418, 1422, and 1428 Third St. will be purchased and torn down for possible sale or future development.

The fourth property is located at 1514 Third St., near the city garage (1529 Third St.), and will be used by the street department.

The council approved a letter of intent to purchase 19 lots in the 1700 and 1800 blocks of Kennedy Drive for a sum of $20,000. The area is vacant and a portion of it borders railroad tracks.

Part of the property on Kennedy Drive is owned by the state of Illinois and part is being held in various trust funds.

"All the area does now is grow high weeds and the land could be used in the future for commercial development or even some type of civic function such as a playground," Mayor Mike Sasyk said.

The council approved sale of property at 1313 Madison Ave. to Ira Stevens, who was high bidder at $300. A condemned house there must be torn down by the new owner and the lot cleared.

Mayor Sasyk announced that Second Ward Alderman Donald Broyles was in Room 11401 at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, undergoing a series of tests.

Alderman Richard Kimer said, "I would like to compliment our police department on the job they are doing."

"As you can all see, the report for the month of June shows a decrease in major crime from June 1974—from 62 then to 54 major crimes this June. When crime is on the increase all around us, this is a noteworthy accomplishment."

In other action the council approved paying of bills in the amount of $27,000 for the period of July 1 to July 15; called a special meeting for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 22, for purposes of reviewing the city budget; and changed the date of the next regular meeting to 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 28, instead of the following day.

REMEMBER THE PIED PIPERS? Warren Covington's vocal group will present Tommy Dorsey era music at a "nostalgic night" concert tomorrow at the Mississippi River Festival at SIUE. Left to right are Alan Sokoloff, Art Lambert, Lil Clark and Jerry Graff. Also appearing will be Ray McKinley leading the former Glenn Miller band.

Nostalgia at River Fest

The memories will all come back Friday when the Mississippi River Festival, on the campus at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, hosts a Nostalgic Night of Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey Music.

Ray McKinley will be leading the band, with Ray Eberle on vocals.

Although Paula Kelly and the Modernaires, originally scheduled to appear, will not be at the performance, the addition of Warren Covington's vocal group, Lil Clark and the Pied Pipers will add a wealth of Dorsey music to the sounds made famous by the Miller orchestra.

McKinley's band, many of them members of the original Miller orchestra, will be playing such hits as "Chattanooga Choo Choo," "Moonlight Serenade," "Tuxedo Junction," "Elmer's Tune," "In the Mood," "Juke Box Saturday Night" and many more.

Eberle, who first sang with Glenn Miller in 1938, will be singing such favorites as "Blue Champagne," "Santa Fe Trail," "Serenade in Blue," "A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square" and more.

McKinley and Miller first became associated during World War II when McKinley, who had disbanded his own orchestra to enter the service, joined Miller in the famous Air Force Orchestra.

Then, when Major Miller was lost over the English Channel, McKinley became the leader of a band that—in the eight months in Europe after Miller's loss—played for more people than any orchestra in history.

The "Big Band" business declined in the early 1950s, and eventually the group disbanded. But a resurgence of interest spawned a rebirth, and the group toured successfully for 10 years, until McKinley "retired" and handed the orchestra over to Buddy DeFranco.

Like many outstanding performers, McKinley's retirement proved to be a "semi" at best, and he now again occasionally leads the singing through its paces, playing the Miller music that helped make the Big Band era a legendary time in music.

Dancing, food, games at annual polka festival

The annual three-day polka festival will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 25, 26 and 27, sponsored by the Sacred Heart Polish National Church, 930 Reynolds St., Madison.

The event, on the parish grounds, will begin with a fish fry at 4 p.m. the first day, followed by free public dancing from 8 p.m. until midnight with music by the Trio Freddi orchestra.

The next day's activities will begin at noon, with games for both young and old, carnival rides for children, and food. At 6 p.m., the Happy Strings Junior Tammis will perform ethnic songs and dances. The Terry Dufko quintet will provide music for public dancing beginning at 8 p.m.

Fried chicken dinner beginning at noon Sunday, July 27, will start the final day's festivities. The festival will again feature such food specialties as Polish golabki, special Polish sausage, pork steaks and shishababs.

Co-chairmen of the event are Edward Camper, Leo Krinski and Mrs. Jane Wyatt. Father Edwin Phillips is pastor.

CONSUMER LEGISLATION

By

LESTER W. BRANN, JR.
President
Illinois State
Chamber of Commerce

The Illinois Legislature has been criticized by some for not passing enough consumer-oriented legislation. But as it turns out the legislators may have done consumers a big favor.

Most of the legislation proposed would have cost consumers a great deal of money one way or another.

It's a little like "the old one-two." The consumer either gets hit through higher product or service prices or he gets hit through higher taxes needed to support government consumer protection functions.

Among the bills which failed to pass the legislature was one to create a state Consumer Protection Agency and a Consumer Advocate. This agency would have been allowed to meddle in the affairs of other government agencies and in court and regulatory proceedings, as well as private business, under a sweeping and poorly-defined grant of authority.

Another problem with most of the consumer legislation before the Illinois General Assembly is that it duplicates or overlaps existing authority. Such was the case of a bill to create an Illinois Consumer Products Safety Act. This Act would directly duplicate the work of the Federal Consumer Product Safety Commission in prescribing safety standards and banning hazardous products.

In the name of protecting personal privacy, a measure was introduced to impose new regulations on credit reporting agencies, which would certainly have raised the cost of credit to all and which would have denied credit to some who are presently able to get it.

The list goes on and on. In case after case, it is a matter of well-meaning legislators introducing legislation to allegedly help members of the public—legislation which actually would end up curbing the consumer's freedom of choice and costing him more money.

The people of Illinois should thank the General Assembly for giving these so-called "consumer" bills the old one-two.

W. D. Strauser, 53, dies

William D. Strauser, 53, of 2220 Woodlawn Ave., an employee of the American Steel Foundries, died at 7:30 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

He had been employed at the local plant for 30 years as a time-study man. Born in Bismarck, Mo., Mr. Strauser had lived in this area almost all his life. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Madison. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Alta Strauser; three daughters, Mrs. Vivren (Sharon) Trigg of Brighton, Ill., and Mrs. David (Billie) Vance and Mary Elaine Strauser, both of Granite City; one son, William Dale Strauser, at home; a brother, Alan Roy Strauser of Granite City; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Strauser of Granite City, and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column. Services were set for this afternoon at a Granite City funeral home.

Frightens burglars but camera stolen

Robert Krause, Binghamton, N.Y., reported at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday that he had frightened four youths who were in the process of burglarizing his van at Rowland, 5050 Nameoki Road.

He said that when he checked on the van, he saw the youths removing some of this belongings and placing them on the ground. They ran northeast. He found his stereo tape player in a nearby field. Camera equipment valued at about $50 was not recovered. He said the youths all were wearing tee shirts.

RANSACK CLASSROOMS
Several rooms at Emerson School, 20th and Benton streets, were ransacked and a television set was stolen during a burglary discovered at 8:20 a.m. Tuesday. Entry was believed gained by breaking a window above a flat roof at the rear of the building.

SAVING SENSE ON CHICKEN

by Nancy M. Davis
Schnucks Consumer Advisor

Food is to savor. Food is to enjoy. And food is to nourish life. Over the years, the enjoyment part has claimed most of the attention. For example, everybody loves chicken. It is something that can be prepared in a variety of ways. But lately there have been rumblings that nutritionally, economically all is not well at the family table. And this despite the fact that today, homemakers try harder than at any other time.

Something obviously has changed to cloud the picture. The word "change" tells it all: the economy is changing, the way we eat is changing and the quality of food is changing. There is even a wide variation in the quality of such a basic commodity as chicken. The homemaker-steering her shopping cart through a maze of buying decisions that become more complicated each day—certainly doesn't want to sacrifice quality for economy.

This week Schnucks takes pride in featuring Grade "A" "Golden West" broiler-fryer chickens at a real value. While other stores frequently feature chickens, they don't often compare in quality.

Be sure to look for the round Department of Agriculture inspection stamp that indicates the meat is safe and wholesome. The shield-shaped "grade A" mark shows that the poultry has been inspected for quality. These grade "A" birds have a plump meatiness that indicates a greater proportion of meat to bone. By selecting those that average around three pounds, the shopper can get the best buy for the money. In addition, a top quality broiler-fryer will never have any parts missing. The rich golden skin color indicates a high level of maturity with added flavor.

At a time when the wholesale and retail prices of beef and pork are high, these Golden West broiler-fryer help the homemaker feed her family economically and nutritionally with the most variety possible. To add to its virtues, chicken is the lowest in calories when compared to other meats: a 3-ounce portion of skinned chicken is only 115 calories.

The most economical way to purchase chickens is to buy the whole ones and cut them up yourself. But if one chicken is too small for your family and two chickens are too much, supplement with a package of chicken parts. Related items are usually offered at reduced prices at the time of a fryer sale, so also consider these values:

Ask for a free easy instructions on how to cut up a whole chicken. This brochure is part of a weekly series of brochures with comparative product information, low-cost menus and recipes. The Shoppers Guide is available free near the courtesy counter. In addition, I am available from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday at $35-$75 to provide information on the week's best food buys, food safety, recipes, food storage, health, nutrition and home preservation. SIUE budget reduced to $29 million

Governor Daniel Walker's budget-trimming this week reduced spending authorizations to $29,000,000 for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and $66 million for SIU at Carbondale.

Utilizing his line item veto power, the governor cut the state higher education budget by $52 million to $1,058,000,000, including a $4,400,000 SIU combined reduction.

Walker contended that the amounts will still permit colleges and universities to grant pay raises to employees without raising tuition.

The higher education figure includes $777 million for operating costs and grants, and $281 million for capital spending.

Growing popularity for Indian jewelry

Turquoise, not diamonds, might soon be "a girl's best friend," judging from the increasing numbers of Indian jewelry shops opening across the country.

The first shop to sell the jewelry in this area is located in Ravanelli's Restaurant, American Village Shopping Center.

Frank Ravanelli, restaurant owner, built the shop in a corner of the lobby where carry-out orders are sold.

He stocks his cases with handmade Indian jewelry that now from the Navaho and Zuni Indian tribes, living in the American Southwest.

Ravanelli's brother, Albert, buys the jewelry direct from the Navaho tribe in Gallup, N.M.

Albert Ravanelli lives in Albuquerque, N.M., where he is a photographer. While doing a portrait of Navaho Chief Peter McDonald, Albert Ravanelli made the contacts which now supply his brother with hundreds of pieces of Indian jewelry, made mostly of silver and turquoise.

Frank Ravanelli tested the local market for interest in turquoise jewelry before he opened his shop. Since Christmas, he has walked from table to table with a small case of jewelry samples.

"People bought them as fast as I could show them, so I figured there would be a good market here for turquoise jewelry," he related.

He now sells rings, choker chains, bracelets and a variety of necklaces, among other things.

One category featured is called Heise beads, which are sea shells and turquoise strung together to make a necklace.

Most of Ravanelli's stock is made by the Navahos, except for several pieces crafted by the Zuni Indians. Those are distinguished from the Navahos by the fact that the Zuni jewelry, unlike that of the Navahos, has all its turquoise inlaid in the silver.

Much of the jewelry carries the journeyman's stamp of the Indian craftsman who made it.

Ravanelli and his wife, Betty, live at 3314 Princeton Drive and have been in the restaurant business for 10 years in Granite City.

Children aid Consultant for adult religious education

A neighborhood carnival to benefit the Tri-Cities Area United Way is being planned by six young children.

The event will be held from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, July 22 and 23, at 3234 Westchester Drive.

The carnival will feature a variety of games in addition to refreshments.

Planning the event are Sylvia Nasir, Jeff, Steve and Mark Zgonina, Mark Milton and Paul Zimmer.

When asked why they wanted to help the United Way, young Zimmer replied, "Because they help so many people."

Adult Catholics in the Granite City area will have available to them the services of a new staff member of the diocesan Office of Religious Education in Springfield.

Father Kevin B. Sullivan, diocesan director of religious education, has announced the appointment of Martin A. Casper to the staff as an adult consultant.

In announcing the appointment, he said Casper brings to the diocese an extensive educational background as well as "a wealth of experience in all areas of religious education."

Casper's credentials include a BA degree in history from Ballinger College, Louisville, Ky.; an MA in American history from Catholic University in Washington; an MA in theology and management, School of Applied Theology, Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, Calif.; and an MA in counseling from the New York Theological Seminary.

After earning a certificate in counseling from the Postgraduate Center for Mental Health in New York, he completed two summers of graduate study in religious education at the Institute of Pastoral Studies, Loyola University, Chicago, and one summer of renewal in theology, Woodstock Search and Service Program, Jesuit House of Studies, Woodstock, Md.

Most recently, Casper has served as campus ministry coordinator employed by the Catholic Archdiocese of Washington, D.C., serving two community colleges, Montgomery College, Rockville, Md., and Prince George's Community College, Largo, Md.

During this time, he also served as teacher, counselor and group facilitator in an adult education and formation program for the Archdiocese of Washington and Arlington, Va.

From 1968 to 1972 he worked with three other professional educators to design, implement and evaluate educational programs on a regional level in clusters of Catholic parishes in New York and Virginia.

Offices ransacked

Several offices were broken into and windows were broken by several small items were stolen during a burglary of the second floor of the Schermer Building at 1816 Delmar Ave., it was discovered Monday.

Pry marks indicate a second floor window was broken and tried to gain entry, but officials have been unable to determine how access to the high window was gained.

The window entered into the waiting room of Dr. Kenneth Hillmer, a dentist. The door from that waiting room into the office of Dr. Walter Mathis was opened. Dr. Mathis' desk was searched.

A window in a door to the hallway was then broken and another window was broken to gain entry to the waiting room and reception room of Dr. Gabriel Hayama.

The intruder also entered Dr. Hayama's office and ransacked the doctor's desk and receptionist's desk. A supply room was searched.

A small amount of coffee, sugar and powdered cream and a small clock are all that are known to be missing.

Windows were broken in four rooms and at the end of the hallway.

Granite City students on the list are Duane C. Atchley, 14 Mercer Drive, Philip D. Dorch, 2811 Warren Ave., Paul Lee Harris, 2312 State St., David Allen Hest, Rural Route Two, Pamela S. Hollis, 2318 Wabash Ave., Kenneth W. Klesh, 97 Riviera Drive.

Arrest man in theft of mail

Charles L. Birmingham, 70, of 2128 Washington Ave., was arrested at 27th Street and Grand Avenue Monday after several persons alleged seeing him remove mail from mailboxes at houses.

Police first were called to the 2700 block of Iowa Street, where several people said an elderly man had been removing pieces of mail from any mailbox.

Police said they asked Birmingham if he had any mail in his possession and he allegedly gave them mail from several addresses in Granite City.

He was charged with theft and United States postal authorities were notified. A postal inspector was sent to Granite City to investigate.

Retirement annuities announced

There's something new in the nest egg department. That's the word from Granite City District Sales Manager E. Ray Grisham of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company office at 3703 Nameoki Road.

"I'm talking about an individual retirement annuity—better known as an IRA," he said. "It can mean additional retirement dollars for 40 million Americans."

Thanks to the recently enacted Pension Reform Act, or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 as it's officially called, millions of persons who did not participate in qualified retirement plans can now set up their own personal IRAs as tax-deferred plans for retirement savings.

An eligible person may contribute annually either 15 per cent of her or his salary, or $1,500 (whichever is less). The amount is fully tax-deductible during the years in which contributions are made.

Income tax is not due until participants begin receiving payments from the annuity, at which time their tax brackets may be lower.

Millions of Americans, Grisham said, have their retirements provided for through participation in qualified retirement plans at work. Many, however, are covered only by Social Security. These people, and those covered only by the Railroad Retirement Act, can qualify for an IRA, he related.

Any individual earning a salary, or a sole proprietor or partner with earned income, not covered by an existing qualified plan, is eligible to set up an IRA. In addition, persons already participating in a retirement plan can transfer their vested interest in the plan to an IRA if they leave their employer.

The new law provides additional tax relief for the nation's over 19 million working couples as well. An eligible husband and eligible wife may each have an IRA and both contribute up to the maximum based on their separate incomes.

Life insurance companies are among the financial institutions that have set up IRAs. Metropolitan Life has developed its own individual retirement annuity program for its insureds.

Under this program, contributions may be used to purchase an annuity contract or appropriate endowment policy. The endowment contract is available with a disability waiver of premium benefit. This means that all premiums will be waived if the insured becomes disabled, and his retirement income keeps accumulating.

mendation made by the Diocesan Pastoral Council. In March 1974, Bishop William A. O'Connor approved of a committee to study adult religious education as a peak priority in the diocese.

A survey concerning the religious education needs of adults was made. All people of the diocese were invited to participate through questionnaires in the Western Catholic publication. Further study was made during the ensuing year. Finally, the committee recommended that a consultant be appointed or hired.

The consultant will be available to facilitate adult religious education in the diocese.

The Pastoral Council approved the committee's recommendation and presented it to the bishop. Following Bishop O'Connor's acceptance of the recommendation, Fr. Sullivan received and reviewed applications for the position.

HONORED BY SENATE. State Senator Sam Vadalabene (left) is shown congratulating Richard Brown, Illinois "secretary of state" at the 1975 Premier Boys State program sponsored by the Illinois American Legion and held at Charleston this summer. The Madison student was one of six young people elected to honorary state governmental offices for the 1975-76 year. The Senate of the 79th Illinois General Assembly adopted a resolution congratulating Brown and the other Boys State officers, who were introduced to the senators.

Students looking for ways to finance their education after high school may be able to receive up to $1,400 a year in federal grants in time for the next school year.

Under the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant, or Basic Grants, program sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education, eligible students may be awarded anywhere from $200 to $1,400 a year to help meet their educational expenses. The federal government does not require repayment of such awards.

Students who have begun their post high school education after April 1, 1973, and attend at least half-time can qualify.

They may attend any one of the over 5,000 eligible schools. These include not only traditional colleges and universities, but also vocational, technical or business schools, and hospital schools of nursing.

To apply for a Basic Grant, a student must first complete and submit an "Application for Determination of Basic Grant Eligibility" for the 1975-76 academic year. These forms are available from high schools, colleges and libraries, or by writing Basic Grants, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044.

Within four to six weeks, the applicant will receive a "Student Eligibility Report," which tells whether the student has qualified.

When the report is received, it must be submitted to the financial aid officer at the school in which the student is interested in enrolling. The financial aid officer will then calculate the amount of the Basic Grant award.

A Basic Grant may not cover more than half of the total cost of the student's education. This includes tuition, fees, room and board, books, supplies and miscellaneous expenses.

In addition to qualifying for a Basic Grant, a student may also be eligible to receive any one of the other financial aid programs sponsored by the Office of Education. The financial aid officer is considered the best source in checking out these forms of aid.

Some of the options open to students include working on a second bachelor's degree, going into graduate studies, or simply staying in school to take courses which may interest them or increase their skills.

"If you find you have unmarketable skills, retraining or additional training would enhance your chance of employment. People have to do something. Staying in school is one of their options," Soliday said.

The proportion of older students on college campuses has greatly increased. "There are an awful lot of older students here at SIUE," Soliday said.

In reviewing the summer enrollment of 1974 with 1975, a comparison of student ages shows:

Age 31 or older—1,538 (1975) and 1,074 (1974).

26 to 30 year-olds—1,767 and 1,300.

22 to 25 year-olds—3,252 and 2,350.

21 year-olds—756 and 634.

20 year-olds—596 and 755.

19 year-olds—514 and 561.

18 year-olds—394 and 398.

17 year-olds and under—119 and 152.

As the number of older students on campus has increased, campus conversation has undergone significant changes.

Soliday quoted an SIUE anthropology professor who overheard this conversation in the hallway: "Did you get any studying done over the weekend?" "No, I intend to, but I had the grandkids over for the weekend."

"I think that says something about mature students getting an education," Soliday concluded.

Storner-Brewer wedding at Sacred Heart Church

The wedding of Miss Janice K. Brewer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Brewer, 2613 Adams St., and Marvin Thomas Storner Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas Storner Sr., 1312 Fremont Belleville, was solemnized on June 27 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Organist Alan Bogovich played a program of nuptial selections, including "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," "Warm Hands" and "A Song is a Gift of Love."

Candles burning in branched candelabra and pink and white floral arrangements provided the setting for the 7:30 evening double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. James L. Neuman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white imported organza, featuring Venice lace appliques on the bodice and edging the scoop neckline and short cap sleeves.

Pale pink organza cuffed the sleeves, formed a set in midriff and a bow with long streamers at the back waist. The softly gathered skirt extended into a chapel train, edged with a pastel pink flounce.

A halo of bridal pink roses, stephanotis and baby's breath secured the long, narrow Juliet veil of illusion. She carried a nosegay of pink roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

A sister of the bride, Miss Mary Beth Brewer, served as maid of honor, with bridesmaids Miss Debbie Fecurka, the bride's cousin, and Miss Janet L. Wilson.

They were dressed in white voile gowns floored with clusters of pink roses. The bodices were designed with square necklines, baby doll sleeves and raised waistlines. A ruffle encircled the flared skirts.

Each attendant held a nosegay of white baby's breath and pink elegance carnations and wore a matching floral halo in her hair.

The flower girl, Jill Muckenstrum, a niece of the groom, wore a pink and white gown, with matching flowers as a headband. She carried a basket of flower petals.

Philip Timper attended the groom as best man. Don Hubert and John Carpenter were groomsmen and Jeffery Hamilton, the bride's cousin, and Nelson "Nip" Hagauer seated the guests.

Denny Tribout, the groom's nephew, was the ringbearer. Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception given at the Edwardsville Moose Lodge after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, parents of the bride, hosted a rehearsal dinner in their home. Both the bridal couple are students at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The groom also is employed in the sign shop department at Tri-City Grocery Co. They are now residing in Granite City.

Out-of-town guests include Mrs. Anita Bergendahl of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, an aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Laird of Deland, Fla.; and Mr. and Mrs. Randy Fowler of Erin, Tenn.

MRS. MARVIN STORNER, the former Miss Janice K. Brewer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Brewer, 2613 Adams St. She was married at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

MRS. BOB JOHNSTON, the former Miss Linda Hatscher, who was married at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hatscher, 1809 Pontoon Road.

Linda Hatscher married in morning ceremony

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on June 14 of Miss Linda Hatscher, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hatscher, 1809 Pontoon Road, and Bob Johnston, son of Mrs. Alice Johnston, 210 Holiday Drive, and the late Bertram Johnston.

Father Sylvester Niecek, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Madison, performed the double ring ceremony at 9:30 a.m. before an altar adorned with sprays of peach colored, blue and white summer blossoms.

Selections played prior to the ceremony included "Twelfth of Never," "Never My Love," "Till," "Turn Around Look at Me," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Panis Angelicus" and "Wedding Prayer."

A wedding breakfast was served at Charlie's Restaurant immediately following the service.

The former Miss Hatscher was attired in a floor-length bridal gown made in a princess style. Lace trimmed the V-neckline and the long bishop sleeves were tightly cuffed in matching lace.

White satin ribbon and covered buttons accented the molded bodice and a large sash tied in a bow at the back. A deep gathered flounce encircled the semi-straight skirt.

She wore a lace headpiece to hold in place a shoulder length veil of bridal illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses, peach colored and white daisies and baby's breath.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Johnston, selected a full-length aqua knit dress with an overlay of printed sheer tulle. She had white accessories. Their corsages were made up of white tea roses and baby's breath.

The newly married couple is now residing in Edwardsville following a wedding trip to Wisconsin.

Both graduated from Granite City High School and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The bride is a speech therapist in the Little Rock School District system. Her husband, a graduate student, is studying government.

For her wedding, the former Miss Katzman chose a semi-bell style gown of white tulle mist veined with a fingertip veil edged in Venice lace and attached to a Juliet lace cap.

Venise lace motifs lavishly accented the Empire bodice and Gibson girl sleeves and bordered the deep gathered flounce at the hemline.

Her bridal bouquet consisted of pink sweetheart roses, white carnations and baby's breath, interlarded with long satin streamers.

The attendants, Mrs. Sharon Bettis, Mrs. Karen Schaefer, Miss Joyce Waters, Miss Diane Waters, Miss Susan Amburg and Miss Kim Green, wore identical full-length gowns in pale pink.

Their dresses were created with ruffled collars and bell sleeves, enhanced with pink tulle trim. Each girl held a bouquet of pink carnations and white pom-poms.

Rick H. Bettis attended the groom as best man. Lenzie Schaefer, Richard Corbin, Thomas Shrum and Michael Sartin completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall after the service. Mr. and Mrs. Green, parents of the groom, entertained the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner in their home.

The newly married couple made a honeymoon trip to the Ozarks region and are now residing in Granite City. Both graduated from Granite City High School.

Judy E. Willmirth and Dale Bridges are wed

Miss Judy Ellen Willmirth, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Willmirth, 1906 Sixth St., and Dale Bridges, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bridges, 2000 Rhodes St., all of Madison, were united in marriage at 10 a.m. July 9 at the First United Presbyterian Church of Madison.

The Rev. David Maxton, pastor of the Granite City First United Presbyterian Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

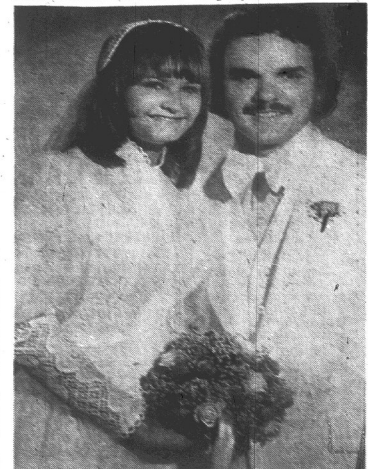

A full length gown of Cluny lace designed with a gathered polyester sheer overskirt was worn by the bride. The fitted bodice of imported lace featured a high neckline, edged with lace trim. Lace also traced the front bodice and marked the natural waistline and cuffs of the long tapered sleeves. A sheer poul jacket effect created the Juliet-style sleeves, and her elbow-length veil was trimmed with Venice lace and secured to a crepe Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of white roses, pink rosebuds and baby's breath.

Matron of honor Mrs. Karen Adams chose a formal-length pink gown in Empire style and held an arrangement of white daisies and pink rosebuds, intermingled with baby's breath.

The groom selected Bud Adams as his best man. Both newlyweds graduated from Madison High School. The groom is employed at AVSCOM in St. Louis.

The couple is now residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Boise, Idaho.

MR. AND MRS. DANIEL REINHARDT, who were married in an evening ceremony at the Salem United Church of Christ in Alhambra, Ill. The bride is the former Miss Mary Ellen Otto, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon F. Otto of Alhambra.

Mary E. Otto marries Daniel L. Reinhardt

Arrangements of vari-colored daisies and gladioli, intermingled with greenery, created a summer setting in the Salem United Church of Christ in Alhambra, Ill., for the wedding on July 11 of Miss Mary Ellen Otto and Daniel L. Reinhardt.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon F. Otto of Alhambra. The groom is a son of Mrs. Alice Reinhardt, 1601 Lindell Blvd., and the late Edwin Reinhardt.

For her wedding, the former Miss Otto selected a Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a bouffant tiered skirt. Sequins and rhinestones studded the bodice made with a square scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves.

She wore a halo headpiece to secure a melody-length veil and carried a colonial bouquet of Miss Dawana Otto, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a blue dotted Swiss dress, formal length, and she held a bouquet of yellow daisies.

A niece and nephew of the groom, "Kris and Joseph Reinhardt, served as flower girl and ringbearer.

The groom chose his brother, David Reinhardt, as best man. Ushers were Michael Otto, a brother of the bride, and Blaine Minkell.

Guests were entertained at a reception in the Salem Parish Hall following the service.

UNDERSTANDING ALCOHOLISM

a health column from the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Alcoholism: How You Can Help

You can help your community provide help to people with alcohol problems. The need is there. Of the nearly 100 million Americans who have chosen to drink alcoholic beverages, more than 9 million have trouble resulting from their drinking.

Those who have alcohol problems or suffer from alcoholism can be treated if they seek help. And further generations can be spared from needless suffering if community alcoholism prevention and education programs begin now.

How can you help? The National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA), a component of HEW's Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration, says in a new leaflet, "How to Help," that an important first step is to learn all you can about alcohol use, alcohol misuse, and alcoholism in your home community.

Some local sources for alcohol information are mental health clinics, physicians, alcoholism treatment centers, hospitals, clergymen, and members of local Alcoholics Anonymous chapters. Numerous national agencies, such as NIAAA and the National Council on Alcoholism, can also provide factual information.

You can help build community support for alcoholism treatment services by joining citizens' groups and organizations already active in such work.

If good treatment services are available, help them to reach the alcoholic people who need them. Check on how alcoholism is handled at your place of work; publicize the phone numbers and locations where help may be found; help someone who is close to you and needs help seek treatment.

Find out how alcoholism is handled by local law enforcement agencies. A model law called the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Treatment Act has served as a catalyst for many States to pass laws which recognize public drunkenness as an illness, not as a criminal offense.

Although treatment is the only method of helping today's alcoholics, prevention is the only way the alcoholism epidemic can be stopped. You can help prevent alcoholism and some of its consequences by being a good host or hostess—don't "push" drinks, provide food with alcohol at all times, provide transportation for those guests who are unable to drive safely.

Prevention programs might also be started or expanded in local schools, church groups, or community groups, especially those involving young people.

For further information on how you can help your community fight alcoholism, send for a free single copy of the booklet, "How To Help." Write to: NIAAA, P.O. Box 2345, Rockville, Maryland 20852.

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL HEALTH

a health column from the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Managing Moods

"Who's in charge around here?" is a good question to ask yourself when you've been experiencing too many moods that block or reduce your satisfaction in living.

But don't get the idea that if you aren't always feeling gay or "high," you should start worrying about the state of your mental health.

A good basic test for determining when your moods may need special attention is to ask yourself: "Do my feelings get in the way of my doing my best work or of my ability to love and be loved?"

It is human and normal to feel sad, angry, guilty, fearful, joyful, and all the other ways a person can feel—if the feelings have resulted from an appropriate cause and if your reactions are realistically designed to bring you back in balance.

One of the big problems we face in attempting to manage our moods is that we don't always know what causes them. Many feelings are deep; sometimes we can't ferret out the root causes of negative moods that absorb our energies and thus prevent their use for productive living.

If the problem is more than a person can handle, he may need help from a mental health professional. However, there is much that the average individual can do to improve his or her day-to-day emotional functioning.

The first step in managing your moods is to remove the scales from your eyes, so to speak, and admit to yourself the real cause of your unwanted feelings.

Another important step is to express your feelings in appropriate ways—and toward appropriate persons if such are involved—rather than allowing the feelings to fester and grow and then perhaps to find expression toward inappropriate targets.

Many useful pointers for understanding your emotions and managing your moods are found in a pamphlet published by the National Institute of Mental Health, which is a part of HEW's Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration.

For a free copy of the pamphlet, Freeing Yourself from Bad Moods, write to the Public Inquiry Section, National Institute of Mental Health, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Maryland 20852.

Walker 'commercial' in federal mailing studied

By LESTER BELL

Press-Record
Washington Bureau
Gov. Dan Walker's signature on a federally-funded mailing to elderly Illinoisans has caught the attention of two Washington agencies.

The U.S. General Accounting Office and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare report their Chicago regional offices will make some inquiries while they examine the legal aspects.

Some Illinois newspapers have editorially questioned the propriety of the mailing in Walker's name, ostensibly to apprise senior citizens of their benefits.

They raise the issue of whether the governor is advancing himself politically by using public funds for the mailing.

These two agencies were asked to comment on reports the Walker administration got HEW's permission to spend $12,000 in federal funds for the mailing to 180,000 Illinoisans with the apparent understanding that the mailing would be registered to providing information on benefits only.

HEW apparently was not told that the letters, on the governor's stationery, would go out in Walker's name and encourage recipients to support legislation endorsed by his administration.

A GAO spokesman said that agency had just learned of the issue and that its regional office would look into it.

"We could undertake an investigation," he said. "It depends on the circumstances. It's a matter of money. We spread our resources where the biggest return is."

Sources at HEW were unsure where such mailing funds might originate within the department, but presumably they came out of the regular allotments made to states under Title III of the Older Americans Act.

States are free to use their own money in spending Title III funds, although HEW's regional offices are supposed to monitor them.

Charles Wells, deputy director of the HEW office which administers the discretionary grant program for states and communities, said the Chicago regional office has "sent in a memo asking our reactions to the situation described."

Wells characterized it as a "relatively new issue" and one that HEW "wants to look at from a legal point of view."

He said appointments are being arranged for HEW's attorneys to pass on the legality of Walker's mailing. HEW will also obtain a legal opinion from its regional office.

Wells said he "can't pass judgment" and he emphasized that the states have discretion in spending the funds earmarked for training and research and development of projects.

"If the state did inform the regional office early as described, I can see nothing wrong with this," Wells said.

Bicentennial series to feature each state

In celebration of the nation's bicentennial, the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville radio station, WSIE-FM (88.7), will broadcast a series of programs on "The States of the Union."

Beginning July 20 and continuing for a year, the hour-long programs will be aired every Sunday at 3 p.m.

Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Michael Kammen will host the programs. His appearance on the series is being made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

A specialist in early American history and the history of American culture, Kammen is a member of the editorial board for the series of Bicentennial State histories to be published by W. W. Norton and Company and the American Association for State and Local History.

He has worked as a consultant on bicentennial projects for the National Endowment for the Humanities, the New York State Education Department and the Civic Education Service, and is currently a bicentennial consultant for the Children's Television Workshop and ABC Television.

Each of the documentary shows in the series will be designed as a unique portrait on one of the 50 states. Kammen's role as host will be to focus on the contribution each state has made to the growth and development of the United States.

Arrest 2 at Kirkpatrick

Timothy D. Volkert, 24, of Perryville, Mo., was charged with aggravated assault, disorderly conduct and intoxication, and James T. Cagel, 23, St. Louis, was charged with disorderly conduct and intoxication after they were arrested at 3807 Kirkpatrick Homes early this week.

Mary Morris, who lives at the Kirkpatrick address, telephoned police and alleged she was calling from the upstairs of her apartment. She said the men were downstairs and refused to leave, and she gave officers permission to break in.

Police kicked open the rear door and entered to find two men inside. They allege Volkert scuffled with officers while Cagel watched.

At the police station, Cagel was served with old warrants charging him with escape and resisting a peace officer, related to a previous incident at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The front door was pried open and each room in the house was ransacked. A door from the kitchen to the garage also was broken.

Among items stolen were phonograph and speakers worth a total of $150, a stereo and speakers worth a total of $50, a $30 clock radio, about $150 worth of tape recordings, an $80 pistol, a shotgun, two rifles and other items.

Opportunity Monday to speak out for new locks, dam

With "everybody getting into the act," including even the distant state of Minnesota opposing replacement of the aging Alton locks and dam, it will be important that local residents and officials stand up and be counted on the positive side of the proposal.

The St. Louis District of the Army Corps of Engineers has called a meeting for 1:30 p.m. Monday, July 21, at the Boulevard Room, Jefferson Hotel, 415 N. 12th St., to discuss findings in the Corps' newly issued Draft Supplement to the final Environmental Impact Statement.

The amended impact statement, consisting of four volumes of text and appendix, is more than six inches thick and contains several thousand pages. In addition to the EIS, a formulation evaluation report consists of three more volumes.

Nuclear war capability spreading to more countries

Press-Record Washington Bureau—Almost daily there are news stories indicating that the world is becoming a more dangerous place.

The latest concerns the $4 billion agreement between Brazil and West Germany for the development and refining of Brazil's uranium ore deposits, which are described as extensive.

Under the agreement, West Germany will furnish the technology and Brazil the raw uranium. Out of it, both nations will get the enriched uranium that is the fuel for nuclear power plants and also the stuff for nuclear weapons.

Up until last year membership in the nuclear club was restricted to the five nations which are permanent members of the United Nations Security Council—the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and China.

By means of the Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty, it seemed that these nations might be able to keep a monopoly on the bomb. But we live in a world of raging

Time FOR Courts to monitor GC caseload; cite less availability of judges in summer

The authority of our judges does not stop at the Granite City limits. Neither does the responsibility of these gentlemen.

Not debating the merits or demerits of the old justice of the peace system, surely it is apparent that our judges must cover themselves with cases originating in many communities.

Finally, I would request clarification of that portion of the article which suggested that Assistant State's Attorney Casper Nighswander was not present at the appearance setting because he was not needed.

I certainly assure you that nothing could be further from the truth. In my humble opinion, I would suggest that a representative of the state prosecutor's office is needed at every session of the court.

No one understands better the importance of the cooperation shown by Chief Ronald Veizer and his staff. As you are aware, the court is totally unbalanced function without that cooperation.

Due to some unfortunate circumstances, Chief Veizer and I disagree on the point of whether or not he had been advised of the trial date. It is my sincere hope to note that memories often fail and reasonable men do often differ.

I would sincerely hope that such a minor point as this would not act as an irritant between the courts and the police.

Consequently, all setting dates in the future will be communicated in writing.

It is my sincere hope that each of the problems which we inevitably incur are solvable. I trust that the continued cooperation of Chief Veizer and his staff will continue to facilitate the work of both the courts and the Granite City Police Department.

Please rest assured that we will do all things possible to provide needed services for the citizens of Granite City and the rest of Madison County.

Appeal for adequate school funding direct input concerning the consequences of the reduction of state funding.

As a member organization of the Illinois Committee on Full Funding, the Illinois Education Association concurs wholeheartedly with the state board of education in its call for a resolution to the budget reductions placed upon elementary and secondary education in Illinois.

The resolution predicts decreased programs, a shorter school year, increased local taxes and other hardships for many of the 1,000 school districts and the 1,300,000 public school children in the state.

Of particular interest is the portion of the resolution indicating that the State Board of Education encourages members of the legislative, executive branches to meet with parents and school people throughout the state to gain pay higher minimum wages, and deal with double-figure inflation when the state refuses to pay its fair share of the cost on a per-patient-day basis.

State underpays nursing home costs

The industry maintains the state is underpaying for skilled and intermediate care by a minimum of $2.50 per patient per day.

The state does not refute this, but simply says state income is not what it was expected to be and the increase in the public aid caseload is much greater than expected.

It is false economy for the state of Illinois to single out one portion of the providers of institutional service in the state of Illinois and refuse to pay them a fair payment for the necessary services they render, especially when that provider is one that has been under such criticism in recent months.

Governor Walker and James Trainer, the director of the Department of Public Aid, should reconsider their decision and do their part to insure that nursing home care does not take two steps backward in the next fiscal year.

Farm economic incentives vital

Illinois Farm Bureau—The first official estimate of this year's corn crop—the grain that puts meat on the table—has been announced in Washington, D.C.

It came as no great surprise that everything at this stage of the growing season points to an all-time record crop—a crop that literally feeds the animals and poultry that become tomorrow's meat, milk and eggs.

It came as no great surprise that the other two elements of the Big Three in American crop production—wheat and soybeans.

Federal 'camel' nosing under another tent?

By RICHARD L. LESHNER
President
U.S. Chamber of Commerce

How do you feel about getting government back closer to the people?

I think most Americans have a gut feeling today that we need to move in that direction. And yet, on so many fronts, we seem to be moving rapidly in the other direction.

Stranger still, many of the same people who make a lot of the noise about bringing government "closer to the people" turn out to be on the opposite side of the issue, on a case-by-case basis.

Some current proposals for federal land use legislation are a good example of the latter behavior.

"Land use" is a fancy term for what used to be called "zoning," and more recently has been known as "planning." We can and should—do a better job of land use planning than we have done in the past. But we should also approach the task with a healthy appreciation of its complexity.

Much of what once passed for "progressive" zoning and tax policy in an earlier era has contributed to some of our most intractable urban problems today.

Why, for example, should it be nearly impossible in so many of our big cities to live within walking distance of one's place of work?

Conversely, diversity and local experimentation have often retarded the way for others to follow.

Some cities today—Chicago comes to mind—are building skyscrapers that combine within one building shopping, recreational facilities, office space, hotels, and apartments. They determine that his land use program meets the requirements of Title III. How do you interpret that language?

Our ancestors fought, among other things, to gain freedom from onerous land use restrictions imposed by the Crown. Let's not wind up back where we started.

Unique retailing contributions to nation's history

By HUGH E. MUNCY
President
Illinois Retail Merchants Association

Retailing has made prominent contributions to the economic, civic and social growth of every community in our nation. Leadership of merchants made Illinois a merchandising capital.

It is important that citizens be aware of the unique contributions that retailing, from the corner store to the big department store, has made in our 200-year history.

We are urging retail participation in events commemorating the 176th anniversary of the nation.

Many retailers already are observing, providing leadership, financial support and merchandising talents for heritages, historic and festival programs.

Stores and shopping centers are devoting space to educational exhibits on such subjects as the history of fashions, home furnishings, household appliances, modes of transportation, history of local industries, growth of consumer services.

Merchants are sponsoring and participating in festivals promoting art, music, dance and the theater, all of which contribute to the Bicentennial commitment to build pride in America.

Many of the retail Bicentennial activities provide real service for customers. Examples of these are instructions in crafts, seminars on period furniture, and reviews of books on the Revolution.

Promotions, ads and displays which carry a patriotic theme make a contribution to the birthday celebration by focusing public attention on the Bicentennial period.

In hundreds of Illinois communities, the business district revolves around retail firms with histories dating back more than a hundred years.

Every retail community, every store, has made its contribution to the development of America and every merchant can make a meaningful contribution to the Bicentennial observances.

1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return
Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q. I've been out of work and looking for a new job for two months. Are any of my expenses related to the job search tax deductible?

A. Yes, in a recent ruling, the IRS has determined that expenses directly incurred in seeking new employment are tax deductible under certain circumstances. (Previously, employment agency fees paid only after actually obtaining a job were deductible.) Among the deductible costs of job search are counseling and employment agency fees, resume preparation, mailing and postage. In addition, reasonable travel and out-of-town food and lodging expenses are now deductible. However, the IRS says that such job hunting expenses for

Illinois retains 'fault' concept in divorce law

While some states have enacted legislation implementing the "no-fault" concept of divorce, Illinois retains the fault, or "grounds," theory.

This means that in order for a married person to secure a divorce from his or her spouse, that person must prove in court that the spouse was guilty of certain misconduct which constitutes grounds. Only the court can grant a divorce.

Illinois has expanded the number of available grounds to eleven. These are:

1. Extreme and repeated physical cruelty.
2. Extreme mental cruelty.
3. Desertion, either actual or constructive.
4. Habitual drunkenness.
5. Adultery.
6. Drug addiction.
7. Attempt on the life of spouse.
8. Conviction of a felony.
9. Infection of spouse with communicable disease.
10. Bigamy.
11. Impotency at the time of marriage.

Divorce proceedings are usually commenced with the filing of a complaint for divorce. In addition to reciting the facts or "allegations" underlying the grounds, the moving party, or "plaintiff," must state therein that he or she is free from any guilt in the misconduct; that he or she is free of causing or provoking the misconduct; that he or she has lived apart from the spouse as a single person since the wrongdoing, and is and has been a resident of the county where the suit is filed.

The residency statement represents to the court that it has the authority and right to hear and decide the case. This is known as "jurisdiction."

The fact that the plaintiff has not been guilty of misconduct on his or her own part or has not caused the misconduct serves to avoid the question of condonation of the acts by the plaintiff.

Once the plaintiff establishes the basic ingredients in the complaint, the spouse being sued, who is called the "defendant," must either respond to and answer the allegations or allow the matter to proceed uncontested.

Even if the case is uncontested, however, the party seeking the divorce must still prove the allegations or allow the matter to proceed uncontested.

Management Club names officers

Two of the four new officers of the Granite City Steel Management Club are Granite City residents. They are Jack Mitchell, secretary, and Phil Heath, treasurer.

New president of the club is Vic Sansing of Troy. Vice president is Bill Lisch of Collinsville.

The officers were chosen by secret ballot of the organization, which has as members 500 management and staff employees of the Granite City plant, a division of National Steel Corp.

"Purpose of the club is to promote the improvement of its members as managers and to provide fellowship."

Programs feature speakers from within and without the Granite City Steel division. An annual event is "top management night," featuring a panel of the division's executives.

There are other special meetings sponsored by the group during the year. Well-known athletes appear on the "sports night" program, to which the children of the members are invited. There also is an annual Christmas party hosted by the club for the youngsters.

Mitchell is a foreman in the Cold Rolled Finishing Department of the steel division and has been with the firm for 27 years. He and his wife, Zoe, live at 2580 Boyle Ave.

Heath, superintendent of the Hot Rolled Finishing Department, is a 26-year veteran of the firm. He has been active in civic projects over the years, and is currently a director of the Tri-City Area YMCA. He also is an adviser in the Mississippi Valley Junior Achievement organization. He and his wife, Shirley, live at 2330 St. Bernard Ave. They have four children.

Former state senator sued for 2-year pay

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott sued in Sangamon County Circuit Court during the weekend to recover for the state the $40,000 salary which former State Senator Donald T. Swinarski of Chicago collected for the two-year legislative term he never served.

Swinarski was disqualified from holding office as a state senator on March 14, 1975, when he pleaded guilty to a felony violation and perjury after being indicted by a federal grand jury on the U.S. District Court of Northern Illinois. The indictment charged Swinarski with falsifying his federal income tax return for 1969.

He had been re-elected to a two-year state senate term from the 26th District on Nov. 5, 1974, and received his entire two-year salary after the legislature convened on Jan. 8, 1975.

Scott charged that Swinarski knew he would plead guilty to the indictment, and therefore be disqualified for office, when he accepted his Illinois Senate salary.

"The application for and taking of his entire salary at a time when the defendant knew that he would be unable to complete his term and would not in fact serve, constitutes a fraud upon the people of the state of Illinois," Scott alleged.

Cuts in scheduled funding harm schools—state board

The State Board of Education has called upon the executive and legislative branches of Illinois government to "reexamine the effects of cuts in anticipated state aid on school districts" and "meet with parents and school people throughout the state to gain direct input" on the consequences of the cuts.

In its motion objecting to these reductions, the board also directed the Illinois Office of Education to assist in getting information and analyzing the impact of the cuts in state aid to education and report its findings back to the State Board.

Board member Donald E. Truitt, chairman of the board's budget committee, said as he presented the motion that "we must all be aware that the cuts made by the governor yesterday are not some $100 million below the budget approved by the State Board of Education but nearly $124 million, and thus amount to an overall cut of 7.2 per cent from the original baseline."

"And," Truitt continued, "the possibility of $20 million being restored at a later legislative session is only conjecture."

The State Board expressed concern for the "deep cuts on local school grants for educational programs" as well as for the vetoes of legislation (Senate Bills 1433 and 209 and House Bill 534) which would have assisted hundreds of school districts through various revenue-raising options.

Funds for special education tuition, personnel and buildings were cut, including all state assistance provided for the construction of facilities for special education.

Some school districts may face meeting payments for construction projects already contracted for without sufficient funds available, the State Board said.

The board also alluded, in its motion of protest, to the possibilities of "payless paydays, a shorter school year, increased local debt" and other hardships for many of the state's 1,000 school districts as a result of the cuts.

In addition, the board urged the governor to "return House Bill 500 (which would lower the tax assessment ratio) for further study so that local school districts can continue to have access to their tax base."

Impact of measles in GC is cited by state

The Illinois Department of Public Health noted this week that during the past six months, nearly 1,300 cases of measles have been reported throughout the state, including a large number in Granite City.

Counties reporting the highest incidence are Cook (including Chicago), 763 reported cases; Lake, 111; Madison, 85; Kane, 54; DuPage, 41; Williamson, 29; Will, 27; and Bond, 25.

According to Dr. Joyce Lashof, director of the State Health Department, the actual number of cases may be closer to 13,000 than 1,300.

"Experience has shown," she explained, "that where there is one case of measles reported, there are probably as many as 10 others occurring."

In most of the counties where incidence of measles has been high, health agencies or groups have conducted outbreak control clinics. "Immunizing those persons who are in close proximity to a known case of measles," Dr. Lashof said, "is an effective way of preventing the spread of the disease."

"It has been shown," she added, "that a rapid and early response to outbreaks, with control clinics to vaccinate the susceptible population, is a successful deterrent to the spread of measles."

Dr. Lashof pointed out that during each of the past four years, Illinois has been among the "top five" of the 50 states in the number of measles cases reported. "This trend will continue," she said, "unless children at risk to measles are immunized."

Dr. Lashof cited "an example of how measles can effect a community once the disease begins and no organized effort is made to halt its spread."

Between January and June, 29 cases were officially reported in Granite City (Madison County).

"However, school absentee records provided to the state health department cite 80 cases of absenteeism due to the measles. Some of these cases were confirmed by a school nurse."

"Once measles is identified in a community," Dr. Lashof said, "it is a clear signal that children susceptible to the disease should be immunized as soon as possible in order to prevent the spread of the disease throughout the community over a period of weeks or months."

Dr. Lashof expressed concern about the fact that more than 60 per cent of the measles cases now occurring in the state are in school-aged children. "According to state statute," she said, "these children should have been immunized before they were allowed to enter school."

Immunization requirements are enforced by all Quad-City area school districts.

Dr. Lashof urged all parents to check their children's immunization records to assure that each child has been immunized against measles.

"Measles can result in hearing, vision or mental deficiencies," she said, "and through the immunization of all children we can avoid future outbreaks. Measles immunization can be obtained either from a private physician or from a health department."

Day of renewal

The women religious of the St. Louis metropolitan area are invited to a day of renewal at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Father Donald Dietz, OML, professor of systematic theology for the Washington, D.C. Theological Consortium, will conduct the events of the day.

He is located at the Oblate College, Washington, and is a visiting professor at the Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary. Previously he was pastor at Lulea and Tabby, Sweden, and recently assisted at St. Patrick's parish, Cairo, Ill.

This fall, he will be guest lecturer at the Theological Consortium in San Antonio, Tex.

The Pilgrimage Department at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, 397-6700, is handling arrangements for the day of renewal.

The Oblate Fathers conduct similar days of renewal for women religious on a monthly basis. The next such date selected after this month is Aug. 16.

Ford in our future, state GOP believes

President Gerald Ford could win the White House on his own if he keeps up the momentum and the Democrats continue in disarray, many Illinoisans are concluding.

Former California Governor Ronald Reagan, Mr. Ford's potential rival for the nomination, would have to contend with an incumbent President at the Republican convention.

Reagan can make headway only if Ford falters badly meanwhile—and this is not believed likely by Ford backers in Illinois.

These were some of the thoughts of Illinois Republicans in the House after Pres. Ford announced to no one's surprise, his candidacy for the Republican Presidential nomination next year.

While speaking quietly, the Republicans appeared more optimistic than they have in months.

"Ford's prospects are excellent," said Rep. Paul Findley, 20th District.

"I can't now see a Democrat who can beat him in '76," a very prominent House Democrat says the same thing privately.

"The Democrats are so divided on issues and personalities there's no way they can win next year."

Findley views a Reagan challenge as ineffectual. "Like others in the past, Pete McCloskey and John Ashbrook (two congressmen who challenged Nixon)." Then after it's all over, Findley would not be surprised to see Reagan as a cabinet officer in the Ford administration.

Rep. John N. Erlenborn, 14th Dist., said Ford is an excellent "stand-by" and he intends to support him.

"There is some talk of Reagan, but I don't see any real challenge in the primary or the convention," Erlenborn said.

"The Democrats really have no outstanding candidate to put up against Ford," Erlenborn also believes Democrats are on such a "suicidal" course "they can be destroyed before the election."

Rep. George M. O'Brien, 17th Dist., said he is "happy to see Ford running and I will run with him."

"Selfishly," O'Brien said, "he's a good candidate to head our ticket. I don't think Reagan is going to get anywhere. Ford is such a shoo-in, a Reagan candidacy is academic."

Rep. Robert McClary, 13th Dist., like the others an avowed Ford supporter, said Ford and Vice President Nelson Rockefeller are "a very good combination to me."

McClary said Reagan fields delegates, the national convention could be bitterly divisive, but he is not taking a Reagan candidacy "too seriously" now.

Rep. Edward R. Madigan, 21st Dist., believes the "professional" party people would regard Ford as too far ahead for Reagan to do anything about it.

Madigan also said Reagan will retain "as usual, those with strong ideological persuasions" while the "professionals" will go with Ford. Otherwise, they would be "on the wrong side after the convention."

Rep. Henry J. Hyde, 6th Dist., said "Ford is the front-runner" and if the economy continues to strengthen, the Democrats continue in disarray, and Congress "doesn't fool things up," Ford will stay in the White House.

Only if Ford is knocked out or withdraws "for whatever reason" can any rival emerge, Hyde said. In that event, Rockefeller and Reagan would have a do-or-die race.

Hyde said, in that event, Rockefeller and Reagan would win, he believes.

Governor assails federal ban on health planning region here

Gov. Dan Walker on Monday formally requested Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger to reconsider two HEW decisions that the governor said demonstrate HEW's "disregard for Illinois needs."

Walker said the decisions have dealt Illinois health planning efforts a "double blow."

In the first decision, HEW refused to approve an Illinois health planning region map submitted on May 3.

The federal department proposed this month to divide the state's Renal (kidney) Disease Program into three segments, against the recommendation of state officials and of HEW's Midwest regional office.

Gov. Walker said, "I urge your reconsideration of your decisions on these very important matters."

"If allowed to stand, these actions would cause serious disruption to patient care within Illinois, and may well destroy the established professional and communications networks that have taken years to build."

Referring to the HEW decision on the planning map, Gov. Walker said HEW's insistence that the entire Chicago metropolitan area be considered one health planning region contravenes the purpose of the National Health Planning Act.

Illinois had proposed six planning regions for the Chicago area: the city of Chicago, suburban Cook County, DuPage County, Lake County, Kane County, and Grundy County, Kane and McHenry Counties.

"It is possible to have the grassroots level participation in health planning that this act was designed to ensure with a population base totaling more than seven million people," he asserted.

Gov. Walker also singled out Weinberger's refusal to approve the grouping of St. Clair, Madison, Randolph, Bond, Clinton, Monroe and Washington Counties as a single planning region, separate from St. Louis.

Walker said, "Given the strong feelings of Illinois residents, and the considerable supporting documentation Illinois provided... I find it deeply disturbing that you would not even review our proposal."

He said HEW's proposal to split Illinois into three networks for treatment of kidney diseases will destroy the established Illinois Renal Disease Program, which has been in operation for seven years.

Gov. Walker said he is "appalled" that the federal department "persistently is splitting the state renal program and thus dismantling it."

Federal panel upholds restraints on lawyers

A three-judge federal panel's affirmation of a ruling by Circuit Judges in the Third Judicial Circuit—barring Missouri attorneys from practicing in the Circuit without also using an attorney licensed to practice in Illinois—finds it basically constitutional.

The decision came after a group of Missouri attorneys who specialized in specific areas of law concerning railroads, barges and other complex businesses filed suit against Madison County circuit judges, declaring that the ban against Missouri attorneys practicing in Illinois for Illinois clients was unconstitutional.

The ruling interfered with the rights of those companies to select counsel of their own choice, the attorneys contended.

The judges of the Third Circuit had ruled in the disputed cases that the companies were required to obtain counsel who were licensed to practice law in Illinois.

The Missouri lawyers, none of whom were so licensed, asked the federal court for relief from these rulings.

The circuit judges, in interpreting Illinois Supreme Court Rule 707, ruled that the continued appearance of the Missouri lawyers violated the rule's admonition that such appearances be limited to isolated cases.

The federal panel noted that the rule, incorporated as a statute, was not constitutionally deficient. The panel stated, in part:

"The Illinois statute is not unreasonable."

"It is not a complete bar to out-of-state lawyers, but permits their full participation in isolated cases on a case-by-case determination."

"Nor in the present Madison County cases is the participation of out-of-state attorneys completely barred. They may be present and participate with local counsel, though not also using an attorney licensed to practice in Illinois."

The federal court denied the request for relief from the application of the Supreme Court rule as it applied in the cases currently before the circuit court.

The federal court refused to interfere with the local court's enforcement of the rule since such matters are properly matters for the control of the individual states.

"To view it otherwise would be for this court to create a limited federal or national bar and to impose it upon the states," the panel noted.

Arrest at home

Harold Wallace, 2116a Delmar Ave., was arrested at his home during the weekend and was charged with aggravated assault. Warrants also were served on him charging failure to appear in court on previous charges of disorderly conduct and interfering with a police officer.

A Collinsville girl stopped Granite City police on patrol and told them a man in a car had been following her auto and, at one time, the man had pointed a gun at her and her passengers.

She gave a description of a car. Police found Wallace's auto near his home.
